

To the Businessmen of Detroit

A surprise is in store for businessmen living in this community and engaged in work that takes you to a Detroit office each day. We refer to the facilities which this printing organization offers.

In order to appreciate the convenience and practicability of having your printing needs taken care of here you must make an initial trial of our services. Or, if you do not wish to "risk" your printing job with us, you should inspect our plant. We are sure you will be convinced after this inspection. Our doors are always open.

"Your Printers"

Behind these two words, "Your Printers", there is a wealth of meaning—they tell you that the Eccentric operates the largest combined printing and publishing office in Oakland County.

They tell you that right here in Birmingham, at your constant beck and call, an organization stands ready to serve you in your printing needs and modern equipment assures you of service above par.

Believe those two words, "Your Printers", and make them your servants whenever you think in terms of printing.
