HILLS FOLK RETURN HOME

Many More Back in General Exodus From Warmer Climates

Those who left their Bloomfield Hills homes for the more alluring climates of Florida, California and other points south and west are returning in increasing numbers. A most interesting European trip was terminated when Mr. and Mrs. Manly D. Davis of Oak Knob Farms and Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Donovan of "Valhalla" returned home last week. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Donovan arrived in town Thursday from New York where they had visited for a few days. Mr. Davis and Mr. Donovan returned earlier in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. DuBois Young of Rathmoor road have arrived home from a tour of Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Rainey Steeples of R. F. D. No. 3 returned home last Thursday from a winter's visit in Arizona. Before coming back to their Bloomfield Hills home, the Steeples stopped for a visit in New Orleans.

A trip through Florida was enjoyed by Mrs. J. N. DeViser of north Woodward avenue who with some friends returned home last week. Arriving with her were Mrs. A. E. Shell of Park street, Mrs. Bees L. Lee of Southfield Avenue and Mrs. Phillip H. Sheridan of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Harry and daughter, Peggy, have returned from visiting Bermuda. Their home is on Lone Pine road. Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Flannery of Bloomfield Center arrived from Florida where they had spent the winter. Arriving from Melbourne, Fla. Saturday will be Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Slocum Nichols and children.

MRS. HELEN H. JOSEPH Plans are being completed today for the puppet show to be given Wednesday at 2 and at 4:15 p. m. in the Adams School auditorium by Mrs. Helen H. Joseph of Cleveland. The performances are under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association and the proceeds will go to the milk fund in the school.

According to Mrs. D. C. Murray, chairman of the ways and means committee of the P. T. A., the association is raising money for the milk fund which is to be used in supplying the undernourished children of the school with a pint of milk each day.

"Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves" and "Snow White and the Seven Little Dwarfs" will be on the program.

Mrs. Joseph has studied in Europe and is the author of many articles on puppets.

Howard Crull, head of the manual training department in Baldwin High School, is supervising work done by pupils on tickets, programs and posters for the show. This is to be done by school students.

VILLAGER NEW HEAD OF P. T. A.

A village woman, Mrs. Lloyd L. Stanley Elected Secretary Of County Council

A village woman, Mrs. Lloyd L. Stanley of Madison avenue, will serve as recording secretary for the Oakland County Council of the Parent-Teacher association, having been elected to the post last Wednesday at a meeting of the organization in Ferndale.

Mrs. Stanley will serve one year with the following officers: Mrs. F. B. Williams of Royal Oak, president; Mrs. Frank Burt, Ferndale, first vice-president; Mrs. Maude Jackson, Pontiac, second vice-president; Mrs. C. J. Kinman, Ferndale, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Fred King, treasurer.

The business meeting was followed by a banquet in the Lincoln High School cafeteria. C. R. Bradshaw, principal of Lincoln High School, was introduced as one of the speakers by Mrs. Burt, who presided at the afternoon meeting.

Two others, E. E. Dawn, superintendent, and H. A. Tape, president of the Lincoln Consolidated

Training School at Ypsilanti, scheduled for the third Tuesday, October, in Hazel Park. P. T. A. groups from all over the county reported their activities. Invitations have been extended to the council by the Hazel Park P. T. A. to stage the next meeting, Naples.
