CHILD WINS IN ELOCUTION

Marjory Woodward To Represent Birmingham in County Meet

First competitions of the declamation contest were held last Friday in the Baldwin High School auditorium. Seven students were present in the preliminary contest. The four contestants in the semi-final round were Marjory Woodward, Mary Westel, Maxine Meistrup and Marion Marter.

Marjory Woodward, 14 years old, 202 Daines street, won first place with the reading, "I Am an American." She will represent Birmingham at the Oakland County declamation which are to be in three weeks.

Miss Frieda Huggett, instructor.

BALDWINITES TOLD OF CAMP

George Carhart, assistant director of the Y. M. C. A. at Oakland County spoke about Camp Haye-Went-Ha, the Hi-Y club in the Baldwin cafeteria, last Thursday noon. Several interesting details of the camp were told by Mr. Carhart who encouraged every boy who could possibly attend the conference this coming summer. He also urged every boy who was present at the camp last summer, gave the daily routine of the life there and also the many sports and many athletics the boys participated in.

Miss Hazel Cahall, commercial teacher, coached the participants. The judges were Liza Hickox, Latin instructor; H. Earle Curran, drafting instructor; and W. S. Toebacher, science instructor.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND IS IN ITS NEW QUARTERS

Owing to crowded conditions in the music room, the Birmingham high school band and orchestra have been forced to rehearse in the High School auditorium. Beside the regular instrumental classes, and band and orchestra rehearsals, French and Latin were also being taught in this room and it was deemed advisable to have the band and orchestra to the auditorium.

Instrumental and vocal classes were forced out of the music room at the Oakland School to make way for a grade room, which was likewise crowded. The music organizations moved to the cafeteria, and thence to the grade gymnasium, through the excessively crowded rooms in this recently completed building.

Over-crowding in the Hill grade school has forced several grade classes into the high school building.

CAGERS LOSE A CLOSE ONE

Basketball Five Edged Out By Ferndale By 20-18 Score

The Birmingham cagers were forced to howl again when they battled with Ferndale in the preliminary round of the class B interscholastic district tournament at Fontaine High School, Friday night. After waging a bombardment on the cage through the last half to accumulate a five point lead, the Marjonnets were surpassed in the last three minutes of play by the aggressive Lincoln cagers who were victorious with a tally of 20-18.

Both teams resorted to defensive tactics in the first half and when they resumed the tilt in the third period Ferndale led with a score of 9-4.

The third quarter was opened by the chalking of one of Ferndale's two units scored in that period. LeFavre tossed a free throw. After considerable scrumming the Birmingham cagers, climbing by succeeding with a foul point. H. Schwarze, followed soon after with a foul. The Birmingham quickly added another marker on an angle shot after taking a pass. The forward Brown pegged the ball from midfloor and caged it. Ferndale took a time-out and when play again commenced both teams success shots, then Harrison scored one point on a free throw. Cox got in close to the backboard and registered a goal for the quarter ended 13-11, the Baldwinites leading.

ANNUAL COURT DANCE FRIDAY

Letters To Be Awarded To Basketball Players At Party Tomorrow

The annual basketball dance will be held to-morrow evening at Baldwin High School in the gymnasium. Letters will be awarded to both the members of the boys' and the girls' cage teams.

The upper four grades are eligible to attend. Music for dancing will be furnished by Maxwell Gill and his orchestra. Principal Melvin C. Hart announces that 200 couples may be present at the dance.

ATHLETIC GROUP HOLDS MEETING

Two new schools wish to enter the league it is reported.

The quarterly meeting of the Southeastern athletic association was held Tuesday night in the Baldwin High School cafeteria. The purpose of the meeting was to arrange the baseball and basketball schedules for the coming season and to complete plans for dividing the league into sections, which has been contemplated for some time.

Two new schools wish to enter the league it is reported. George E. Johnson, president of the association, will have charge of the meeting.

JUNIORS READY TO PRESENT 'BAB'

Corvoret Directs Presentation Friday At Baldwin High School

"Bab," a four act play by Edward Childs Carpenter, will be presented by the Junior class on Friday, March 16, at 8 p. m. in the Baldwin auditorium, under the direction of H. E. Corvoret and Evelyn Gray with Keith Tarrant in charge of properties.

Dated Feb. 20, A. D. 1928

JAMES V. BAYLEY,
Township Clerk.

The fourth quarter was featured by no scoring until several minutes had lapsed. Berger flipped a short field goal for Birmingham and later scored on a personal foul. Until the latter two had scored Birmingham had a five point lead with the score at 14-13, and less than three minutes to the contest's conclusion. After Birmingham missed desperate tries to widen the margin, LeFavre again calmly tossed the ball from the foul line and tied the score. The final gun boomed close on the heels of Harrison who looped the hoop from midfloor to win the game 20-18.

The St. Mary-Royal Oak match succeeded the game just described and St. Mary won the tournament the latter against Ferndale Saturday night in the finals. The Lincoln cagers bowed to the Orchard Lake aggregation by the score of 20-13 and the Poles retained the championship honors which they have held for three years in class B. Neither Birmingham, Royal Oak or Ferndale have been able to meet them in this time.

St. Frederick downed Hazel Park to win laurels in class C competition and Orion overpowered New Hudson to achieve the class D trophy. The finals Saturday night in the Pontiac High School gymnasium were witnessed by more than 800 people.

'TIS ROLLER SKATES THESE STUDENTS USE

Roller skating threatens to become a real fad in the schools here. Students in the Adams Junior High school may be seen any day cutting a graceful figure in "plus fours"—or the feminine version of "plus fours." It is a real treat to the eye to see the beauty and dignity of a class president, coasting the pavement at a smooth rate of speed, or suffering the height of indignity in an abrupt contact with the hard concrete surface.

The sport has not been adopted by teachers as yet, nor has Baldwin students followed this latest fad, but, oh, so much more dignified—the type of student who affects spats or canes has, following the precedent set in a Detroit school, solemnly warned his friends that he will now adopt monstrosities!
