LANSING SHOW PLANS MADE

Open Hunt Club Scene Of Schooling For Annual Event

Following the custom of previous years the public schooling for the Lansing horse show will be held on Bloomfield Open Hunt club grounds, Saturday, May 19, according to announcement.

Nine events are scheduled. They are: hunters—hacks, open jump (4 ft. 6 in.) suitable-to-be-hunters, jumps (8 ft.), pair jump, ladies' jump—jumps (3 ft. 6 in.), green hunters—jumps (3 ft. 6 in.) and a team jump.

A special buffet luncheon will be served at 12:30 p. m. at the club house and the program will start at 2 p. m.

Among those likely to show their horses are: E. S. Nichols, George T. Hendrie, C. C. Winton, R. G. Gill, W. L. Judd, D. J. Crowley, Mrs. T. S. Donovan, E. F. Hammond, W. O. Briggs, A. G. Wilson, William Hendrie, Ralph Polk, Mrs. Robert M. Allan and Miss Mary Taliaferro.

The show committee has announced that juniors are eligible for all events and that professional also may ride.

Usually there have been 600 horses event, included in the program of this show but due to the length of this year's program it has been decided to dispense with them.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Perry Holmes (Jean Craig) whose wedding recently at Christ's Church Cranbrook was the event of the spring season in the Hills, have returned from their wedding trip, and are now living in their apartment at the Concord Castle, Detroit.

DANCING CLASS TO GIVE FROLIC

Greek Theater At Cranbrook To Be Scene Of Colorful Recital

A June frolic to be given by the pupils of Miss Evelyn Livingston Smith's dancing school will be of interest to both Bloomfield and Detroit society. The dancing will be staged with the natural beauty of the Greek Theater at Cranbrook as a background.

Plans are being made to give the party Friday night, June 1, and Saturday afternoon, June 2. However if weather conditions are unfavorable, it will be necessary to postpone the performance until Monday and Tuesday evenings, June 4 and 5, it is announced.

One scene which will be delightfully colorful is that of a bright gypsy chorus whose leader is in love with a maiden from an old-fashioned scene. Another unusual scene will be that of a Persian pearl fishery where various solo dancers will represent the different colored gems which come from the land of pearls.

There will be an attractive Dutch number and throughout the program an interesting diversification. An elaborate nature number will close the recital.

ROTARY ANNS RECEIVE $300

According to announcements made today, $300 was made by the Rotary Anns at their bridge benefit given at the Lone Pine Inn, last Tuesday. Donations amounting to $37 rounded out the figures at an even $300.

The success in every way considered a success, with more than 250 persons attending. Birmingham merchants, donated all the prizes for the games. Florists contributed the decorations.

MANY ENJOY MUSIC BILL

Chorus From State Normal College Pleases With Program in Village

Music lovers of Birmingham and vicinity were given a feast of vocal concord last Friday evening when 50 mixed voices from the State Normal College at Ypsilanti were heard at the Village Players Playhouse here, under the auspices of the Thursday Musical club of this village.

Frederick Alexander, conductor, and his choir were introduced by Mrs. Norman Lyle, president of the Thursday Musical, who spoke briefly on National Music Week, stating that the evening's performance was being dedicated to that purpose.

The audience was deeply appreciative of the splendid vocal work of the choir, and many remarks were passed to the effect that "nothing like it has ever been heard in Birmingham before."

James Breakey, pianist, accompanied the choir and also played several difficult numbers by famous composers.

RIDERS START PAPER CHASES

Season At Bloomfield Hunt Opens With Weekly Jaunts

Larking Rides and Paper Chases are opening the season at the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club. With the advent of the spring weather, riding is coming in vogue. A Paper Chase was held yesterday afternoon as the first of a series of like events to follow on successive Wednesdays.

Thursday afternoons will feature Lane rides, the first one leaving the club today at 4 p. m. Dinner will be served in the club at 6:30 p. m.

P. T. A.'S ENJOY RECITAL HERE

A successful meeting of the Hill School Parent-Teacher association Tuesday in the Baldwin Library when a musical program was enjoyed, is reported today by those in charge of the program.

Songs were sung by Mrs. Vera Schultz and Mrs. G. W. Patterson who were accompanied by Miss Bevel Hayes. Miss Hayes played a piano duet. Mrs. Helen Neff sang several well-fashioned numbers, readings were given by Mrs. Evelyn Bunyan and Mrs. H. H. Corson accompanied by E. Wenzel who played a violin solo. H. Richards was accompanied by E. R. Edwards.

MRS. GEORGE T. HENDRIE RETURNS, REPORTS ON PEACE MEETING

Mrs. George T. Hendrie of Bloomfield Hills returned Monday from Washington where she had been attending the National Annual meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom.

Mrs. Hendrie is chairman of the Michigan Branch of the organization and a member of the national board.

Last Saturday Mrs. Hendrie was one of ten women with Jane Addams who went as a delegation from the Women's International League to interview President Coolidge.

Miss Addams congratulated the president upon the steps which had been taken by secretary of state, Mr. Kellogg in trying to bring about the multilateral treaties with the other nations to outlaw war.

The Women's International League was one of the first organizations to urge Mr. Kellogg to pursue some method to make Monsieur Briand's proposal an international policy.

Miss Katherine Blake of New York City, a member of the commission which accepted the "Peace Bridge" connecting the United States and Canada at Buffalo at the hundredth anniversary of unarméd border-line, presented a resolution asking for the demilitarization of the United States and Mexican border.

Mrs. Hannah Clodier Hall of Swanton, Pa., presented the resolution asking for a non-military commission be appointed to oversee the election in Nicaragua. Mr. Coolidge discussed with Miss

250 ATTEND CLUB OPENING

Dinner-Dance Features Start Of Summer Season At Pine Lake

Over 250 members and guests of the Pine Lake Country club many from Birmingham attended the dinner-dance on Saturday which marked the opening of the season.

The club has been redecorated and everything is in readiness for a gay summer season. The covers of the newly painted furniture carry out the color scheme of turquoise and blue, evident in the hangings. The living room has been made more attractive by small maple tables and low wrought iron tables with Asian tops have been purchased for the verandas.

Decorations of spring flowers added a festive air to the newly decorated club at its seasonal opening.
