About Newspapers

For those who live and work in the nation's capital, the cost of living is high. The average family spends over $50,000 a year on housing, food, and transportation. But what about the cost of reading the morning newspaper? The Washington Post, for example, charges $80 per year for delivery to your doorstep. That's $6.67 per week, or $0.95 per day. Is it worth it? Some argue that newspapers are indispensable for staying informed about local and national events, but others feel that the digital age has made reading the newspaper obsolete.

The Battery Dollar

• That Rolls Farthest

More useful life in your car from a Willard Charged-Demand Dry Battery. You get more out of it. You know, too, that you'll never have to pay for a reconditioning job any time during its life. In your car, too.

The Willard Battery men

Birmingham Battery Service
125 E. Main

The Dickerson

A New Record for stock cars under $1400

Better than a mile a minute for 5000 miles

The Dickerson $1195 to $1395

BY traveling 5,000 miles in 4,711 consecutive miles, the Dickerson car was tested by the Automobile Press Association. The car was in good condition, and its performance was excellent. The car was tested on a stretch, and its speed was steady. The car was tested under various conditions, and its performance was consistent. The car was tested on a stretch, and its speed was steady. The car was tested in both warm and cold weather, and its performance was excellent. The car was tested in both warm and cold weather, and its performance was excellent.

JEWEL MOTORS, Inc.
Claude E. Meeker, Manager
132 West Maple Avenue

N E W

and critics say, "two years ahead"

"Two years ahead in appearance and mechanically" was the expression of an automobile expert when he saw the new Oldsmobile. "It is the automobile of the future," he said, "and it is already on the market.

According to the experts, the new Oldsmobile is the car of the future. It is faster, more powerful, and more efficient than any car on the market today. It is also more reliable, with fewer breakdowns and repairs.

OLDSMOBILE

PRODUCT OF GENERAL MOTORS

RAMSEY'S AUTO SERVICE
OLDSMOBILE SALES AND SERVICE
ROBERT E. RAMSEY, Proprietor
113 Brownell

JEWEL MOTORS, Inc.
Claude E. Meeker, Manager
132 West Maple Avenue

N E W

and critics say, "two years ahead"