

BIRMINGHAM IS LOCATED... EAST MAPLE... SAVINGS ASSOCIATION TO HAVE LARGE OFFICE STRUCTURE BY FALL... SYNDICATE BUYS LAND

Announcement of the purchase of east Maple avenue frontage and plans for the construction of an office building are made today by Robert R. Allen, trustee of a syndicate of men who are underwriting the enterprise for the Oakland County Savings Association.

Those in the syndicate are: Seymour D. A. Jones, president; Allen, James Taylor, Edward W. Hiett, J. H. McBride, Ralph Mowbray, Robert Chisum and Mr. Allen, all of Birmingham, and Harley Warner and Edgar S. Price of Farmington.

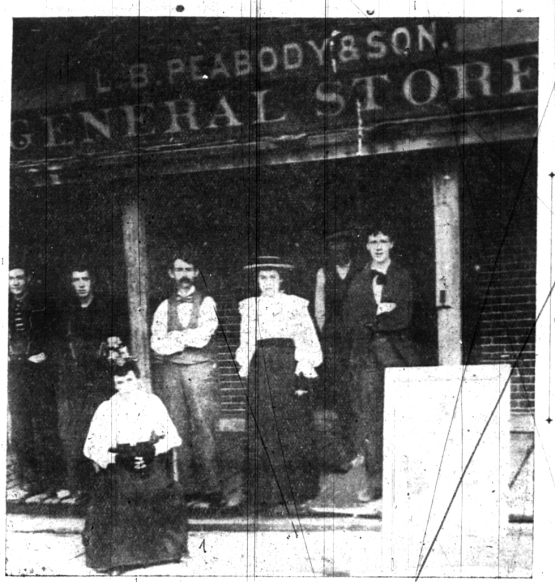

Man From Big Beaver First To Be Sentenced Since Recent Quarantine... John O'Connor of Big Beaver was the first to be sentenced since the Oakland County jail today following conviction in Justice Floyd S. Conant's court.

HOME MENACED BY FLAMING BARN... Fire Department Saves Residence On Long Lake Road After Long Battle... Quick work by the Birmingham fire department saved the home of Vera Patche on the Adams road north of the Long Lake road Tuesday night when it was menaced by flames which destroyed a large barn in the rear.

COMMUNITY HOUSE WORK MAKES DAYS BRIGHTER FOR ONE FAMILY... Bleak winter days and long nights of cold and hunger, illness in a family of four of whom were children, despair and desolation surrounding a small home on Bird avenue near the heights of the mother and father, wonder at a possible solution to the predicament had mapped out for them.

ADAMS SCHOOL, Grade Occupies, Adams Auditorium, Admission 15c.

FROM A LONG TIME AGO

This picture is almost as old as the Birmingham Evening Post. It was taken in the month of May, 1908, and was the first of a series of pictures showing the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Leonard.

GROOM HORSES FOR LANSING... Many Bloomfield Entries To Appear At Annual Show

With the Lansing Horse Show, sponsored by the Michigan State College R. O. T. C. less than a week off, Bloomfield and Birmingham riders are exhibiting keen interest in the event, and are preparing their hunt-teams for rigorous of the prize ring.

ADAMS SCHOOL, Grade Occupies, Adams Auditorium, Admission 15c.

ADAMS SCHOOL, Grade Occupies, Adams Auditorium, Admission 15c.

ADAMS SCHOOL, Grade Occupies, Adams Auditorium, Admission 15c.

BUS-LIMITED CRASH; FIFTY ESCAPE HURTS

Front Compartment Of Interurban Demolished In Woodward Accident... BLAME WOMAN DRIVER

Fifty passengers on a Star motor bus and a D. U. R. limited escaped injury Saturday when the front car to which struck a woman who drove her car into Woodward avenue from Hamilton street.

POLICE WAGE INCREASE SEEN... Meeting Arranged To Fix Salary Increase For Force

A substantial raise in the salaries of Birmingham policemen is indicated today following a discussion at the commission meeting Monday night by members of the force and Arthur J. Tuguey, real estate and insurance dealer, who spoke for the police.

PLAYERS OPEN SHOWS TODAY... Tickets Reported Selling Rapidly

Everything is in readiness for the opening performance of the Village Players tonight, according to announcement made today by Leigh Lynch, president of the Players and general chairman for the public performances.

POLICE SEEK AUTOIST HERE... Woman, Two Men Hurt In Crash On Woodward; Driver Flees

While three persons are recovering today from injuries received when their car was struck Sunday night in Bloomfield Hills village, police are seeking the hot and run driver who caused the accident.

OFF TO MEETING... Guy Jensen and Louis Randall have been chosen to represent the board of education of Birmingham at the Denver business men's meeting in Denver, which opens June 5.

DEDICATION OF CHAPEL SOON... Bishop Page To Speak At Ceremonies At Cranbrook

Services for the dedication of St. Dunstan's Chapel at Christ Church, Cranbrook, will be held Saturday at 10:30 p. m. with Bishop Hermin Page of Detroit in charge of the ceremony.

OPPORTUNITY... In good grounds home, located on Park Street, will have frontage on new way for Woodward Ave. Newly decorated inside and out, having that result, everything in good condition. Price $1000, in very good terms.

ADAMS SCHOOL, Grade Occupies, Adams Auditorium, Admission 15c.

LONE PINE ROAD PAVING IS O. K. D

The Bloomfield Hills Village Council passed a special meeting in the Hills Tuesday night passed the preliminary resolution for the paving and construction of curbs and gutters on the Lone Pine road between Woodward avenue and the Leasler road.

DATE SET IN DEDICATION OF NEW CHURCH

Baptists To Lay Cornerstone Here June 3 With Ceremonies... PROGRAM IS PLANNED

June 3 is set today for the date of the cornerstone laying for the new First Baptist Church on Willett street, according to a announcement by the pastor, the Rev. David Lein Woodward, who is completing arrangements for the program to accompany the dedication.

Both vehicles were north-bound and the crasher of the car was Hudson, driver of the bus, turned suddenly into the path of the street car to avoid striking a woman who drove her car into Woodward avenue from Hamilton street.

Meeting Arranged To Fix Salary Increase For Force... A substantial raise in the salaries of Birmingham policemen is indicated today following a discussion at the commission meeting Monday night by members of the force and Arthur J. Tuguey, real estate and insurance dealer, who spoke for the police.

PLAYERS OPEN SHOWS TODAY... Tickets Reported Selling Rapidly

Everything is in readiness for the opening performance of the Village Players tonight, according to announcement made today by Leigh Lynch, president of the Players and general chairman for the public performances.

POLICE SEEK AUTOIST HERE... Woman, Two Men Hurt In Crash On Woodward; Driver Flees

While three persons are recovering today from injuries received when their car was struck Sunday night in Bloomfield Hills village, police are seeking the hot and run driver who caused the accident.

OFF TO MEETING... Guy Jensen and Louis Randall have been chosen to represent the board of education of Birmingham at the Denver business men's meeting in Denver, which opens June 5.

DEDICATION OF CHAPEL SOON... Bishop Page To Speak At Ceremonies At Cranbrook

Services for the dedication of St. Dunstan's Chapel at Christ Church, Cranbrook, will be held Saturday at 10:30 p. m. with Bishop Hermin Page of Detroit in charge of the ceremony.

OPPORTUNITY... In good grounds home, located on Park Street, will have frontage on new way for Woodward Ave. Newly decorated inside and out, having that result, everything in good condition. Price $1000, in very good terms.

ADAMS SCHOOL, Grade Occupies, Adams Auditorium, Admission 15c.

House Drive Lets $32,939 in 3 Days

Campaign Workers Optimistic As Early Returns For Community House Pour In; Several Large Gifts Received

A total of $32,939 was subscribed to the Community House fund up to last night, according to reports made at the second meeting of the campaign workers held in the Episcopal Church.

Several comparatively large gifts were reported and the spirit of the campaign workers was high as the committee chairman made his report. Effort is being made by the workers to raise the $125,000 for the new house before the scheduled time for the campaign to close on May of the coming year.

POLICE START WAR AGAINST TIPS Y DRIVERS... Two Men Draw Heavy Fines As Campaign Opens In Birmingham

Glenn Brown, 31 years old, 1127 1/2 W. 12th street, was arrested in Birmingham in a police car on May 15, 1928, when another driver was nabbed and his two companions arrested on charges of drunkenness. All received heavy police fines.

STAY AWAY WARNING... Samuel Bray, 32 years old, 113 Stevens avenue, Highland Park, also was fined $100 for driving on the same charge.

LIONS ENDORSE HOUSE DRIVE... Mrs. C. R. Wilson Tells Club Of Campaign's Object; Resolution Passed

The Lions Club endorsed the Community House drive with a resolution passed yesterday noon at the meeting of the club at the Chateau Tea Room following an address by Mrs. C. R. Wilson, general chairman of the drive which is now in progress.

VILLAGE MAN NAMED IN SUIT... F. E. Van Black Defendant In Litigation Started By Royal Oak Bank

F. E. Van Black of east Maple avenue, is defendant in a suit in circuit court, Pontiac, started by the Royal Oak Savings Bank which is attempting to recover a note the bank claims is past due.

GRAD SPEAKER IS ANNOUNCED... Rev. Edgar DeWitt Jones To Be Speaker At School Commencement

Rev. Edgar DeWitt Jones, of the Central Woodward Christian Church of Detroit, will be the speaker at the Baldwin High School commencement exercises, June 15, according to an announcement made today by Charles Vliet, superintendent of schools.

GRIM TESTIMONY OF MAD FIGHT IN AIR GIVEN TO BIRMINGHAM... Grim testimony of the tragedy of a mad fight in an airplane 2000 feet above the ground which caused the plane to crash, and sent the pilot and passenger to the hospital, was given today by Pontiac, Sunday.

CONSERVATIVE... "The House will be done on a conservative basis," Mrs. Wilson said. There will be no extravagance connected with it and a board of trustees has been appointed so no governing board of the future could possibly dispose of the holdings. "Hard times are not existing," she said, "collections for the fund are being made."

ADAMS SCHOOL, Grade Occupies, Adams Auditorium, Admission 15c.