News Of Baldwin H. S. And Other Schools

TENNIS PLAYERS EVEN UP SCORE

In the last two matches played the Baldwin net team has won one and lost one. Ferndale was downed last Friday afternoon by a 2-1 score, while Royal Oak conquered Birmingham in the following match played Monday...

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
 Frank B. Ames, formerly of Birmingham: "During our recent trip around the world we received The Eccentric regularly. No matter what country we were in, the paper arrived."

The Baldwin High School and contested for local honors. The contest was the termination of a series of tests held throughout rural schools and determined the championship of each grade. Red, white and blue badges, the trophies for the three highest scores in each grade were presented by Melvin C. Hart, high school principal. After the tests the contestants were entertained with a program of singing, instrumental solos and readings.

HILL SCHOOL TO GIVE PLAY

The pupils of the Hill School under the supervision of Miss Mae Brunsted are planning to give an opera at 8:00 p. m., May 25 in the Baldwin auditorium.

The play, "O'N Midsummer's Day" by Beatrice Alderman is well chosen for juvenile presentation and includes a cast of 200.

Clever roles and colorful costumes are two of the main features. A cast representing flowers, butterflies, zaidrops, brownies, fairies, and overall boys and girls, is cleverly portrayed. Music will be furnished by the high school orchestra.

GIRL'S TENNIS TEAM BEATS FERDALE

The girls' tennis team won from Ferndale last week, 3-0, and lost to Royal Oak Monday. Both matches were played at Barnum field. To date the team has won one match, received one by forfeit and lost two.

In the Ferndale match Avis Gavlin won 6-3, 6-2. Reiney Carr won 6-3, 6-2. The doubles played by Catherine Carr and Margaret Cooney were won 6-1 and 6-2.

In the match with Royal Oak Gavlin lost to Flaherty, 3-6, 6-3, 4-6. Catherine Carr lost to Vanburdelle, 9-6, 1-8. The double match played by Reiney Carr and Margaret Cooney against Genevieve Lawson and Jean Van Everstein was not completed. The score when the game was called, was 1-6, 7-5.

H. P. Girl Reserves Entertain Groups

The Hazel Park Girl Reserves were hostesses Saturday at the first annual North Woodward Suburban Girl Reserve party given at the Royal Oak High School. Other groups represented were Ferndale, Star Acre, Royal Oak, Birmingham and Besley.

Betty Kidder of Birmingham presided at the business meeting and games were led by Miss Elsie Brode while Miss Ella Heston led the singing. Refreshments, preparing various games, were presented by the clubs during the afternoon and Miss Eric Lepton, general secretary of the District Y. W. C. A. addressed the girls.

Refreshments were served by the Besley Girl Reserve club. This was the first meeting held to strengthen the spirit of friendship in the circle of North Woodward clubs outside of Detroit.

PAGEANT TO BE OUT OF DOORS

Pupils From First Grade, Through High School To Participate

The annual gymnasium pageant, under the direction of Miss Helen McIntyre at Baldwin High School to be given May 31, will be held out of doors.

Boys and girls from the first grade through the senior high school will take part in presenting drills and dances. Catherine Carr as Persephone has the leading role. Other parts are played by Margaret Cooney, Margaret Halliday, Evelyn Salisbury, Jane Salley, Betty Salley, and Ezyonne Gay.
