

The General Store

Years ago, if no other place in Birmingham had what one wanted, one could be sure to get it at Volney Nixon's. In the picture, at the left, you will see Mr. Nixon seated in the chair, while below, on "the stoop", you will see Samuel Mills, the best cooper that ever lived in this vicinity. Both Mr. Nixon and Mr. Mills are still residents of Birmingham—and both of them are filled with a great store of Birmingham legends.

Proposed Community House

A drive for $125,000 to construct this lovely new Community House is now under way.
