NEW BUILDING PLANNED FOR EAST MAPLE

SAVINGS ASSOCIATION TO HAVE LARGE OFFICE STRUCTURE BY FALL

SYNDICATE BUYS LAND

ANNOUNCEMENT of the purchase of the last of the property for the new building site of the East Maple Savings and Loan Association was made by Robert R. Allen, president of the association.

The new building will be on the corner of East Maple and Michigan Avenues between Woodbridge and Olive. The site was bought from the L. W. Allen Co., owners of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. building.

Work is to start on the building project in a very few weeks, the site will be a one-story structure with a modern and unusual three-story office building.

The building will be black and white and it will follow the general appearance of the other buildings on the block. There are already some tenants in the building.
