Recognized Leaders

MANY of the "recognized leaders" smoke "Old Iron" cigarettes... to be sure! But of them who recommend openly (sans the usual bribe) that they read the best literature without getting a headache. This latter recommendation proves conclusively that the "smart" absolutely have to know what's agog to retain their leadership. Two words to the wise is a double warning!

To attain or retain an enviable leadership we suggest that your name be placed on our mailing list for best news each month!
