

TWO INJURED IN AUTO CRASH

Driver of Car Which Hits Truck Escapes Injury in Hit Collision

Two Negroes are in the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac, today suffering from injuries received when their automobile crashed into the rear of a truck.

Monday in Bloomfield Hills on Woodward avenue. James Douglas and Henry Howard, 380 Highland avenue Pontiac, were injured. Edward Johnson, same address, said to have been the driver of the car, escaped. Deputy Sheriff Fred J. Macfarlane and Nelson Singleton, who investigated, reported the truck was driven by Ray Pine, 304 Central avenue.
