Claim Police Underpaid

Conference Called to Adjust

Of Salaries for Police

Department

Birmingham's police are undervalued. Their scale of pay should be increased to meet the needs of the fire department.

This is the conviction of Arthur J. Tuggey, Birmingham real estate and insurance man, following a conference with James W. Perry, village marshall, in regard to the proposed pay for the police.

Tuggey, who has a great deal at stake, says: "This has been going on for some time, but no one has ever taken any notice of it."

The present pay is $100 a month, and Tuggey wants to double it.

Community Fund Reaches $78,875

Judge Alldred said: "I'm sure there's money enough to build a house."

Birmingham Community House is to be built on the lot purchased by the Community House Committee.

MMB 56 TIP"It"s a real beauty."

The deed assures a place that will have a living room, bedrooms, and a kitchen.

Community House Committee will make the plans for the house and the Community House will furnish the supplies.
