Recognized Leaders

Many of the recognized leaders wrote "Old Fourth"'s letters... to be sure. But all of them will recommend openly (the usual bridle) that they read the best literature without getting a head-ache. This latter recommendation proves conclusively that the "smart" absolutely hasn't to know what's ape to retain their leadership. Two words to the wise is a double warning!

...it is only correct to recognize leadership... we respect that same name never be placed on our calling list for.. home, even such.
