LETTER OF PRESIDENT JOHN TYLER GIVES FORECAST OF CENSUS

THE WAY OF THE WORLD

SMALL TOWNS

Small towns also have newspapers. The one in this town is called the "Penny Post." It's published every Tuesday and Friday. The editor, John Smith, is a retired schoolteacher. His favorite topic is local history, and he's written a book on the subject. His articles are well researched and insightful. The "Penny Post" is a great read for anyone interested in small-town life.

REMEMBRANCE

In the small town of Oakwood, there is a monument dedicated to the fallen soldiers of World War II. It's a simple structure, but it's a symbol of the sacrifices made by so many. Visiting the monument is a humbling experience, reminding us of the price of freedom.

A CALLING

Local artist, Maria Garcia, has just released her latest painting. "The Calling," a depiction of the small town's church from above, is a beautiful piece. Maria says she was inspired by the quiet beauty of the town and the stories of those who call it home.

Dog Lovers Scoff At Quarantine Scare

(Concluded from Page 1)

Society

SHOWER HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

What Capital Letters Mean

In the small town of Oakwood, the annual celebration of the capital letters is a tradition. Each year, the town's historical society selects one letter to honor, and the community comes together to celebrate its significance. This year, the letter "O" was chosen, and the town is buzzing with excitement.

STATE BLOCKS STOP SIGNS FOR SCHOOLS

(Concluded from Page 1)

On MOTHERS DAY

What sweeter tribute than a delicious box of Apollo Chocolates

Select from our large assortment especially packed for Mothers on that day—remember, it's Sunday, May 13

SHAD'S

Phone 8500

West Maple Avenue

Birmingham, Mich.