

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

BY DOROTHY E. WILLIAMS.

DELPHINE VHAY TO MAKE DEBUT

Date Undecided For Bow Of Bloomfield Hills Debutante
Miss Delphine Vhay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Vhay, of Bloomfield Hills, will make her debut at the Fox and Hounds luncheon at the Fox and Hounds club on June 16. Plans have been changed, however, and two separate days will mark the debuts.

We Wish to ANNOUNCE

The Burnett Beauty Shop is again being conducted under its former management. The same policy of service and the same high character of work prevails as formerly.

Burnett Beauty Shop
Room 2, Field Bldg.
Phone 9063

COMMUNITY HOUSE CALENDAR
Thursday, May 31—Business Girls Luncheon 12 m.
Friday, June 1—Open Day.
Saturday, June 2—Boys Club Room Open 10 to 12 a. m. to 5 p. m., 7 to 9 p. m.
Sunday, June 3—Church School 11 to 12 a. m.—Scouts 7:30 p. m. Rug Exhibit.
Tuesday, June 5—Rug Exhibit.
Wednesday, June 6—Open Day

A. A. U. W. WOMEN TO ENTERTAIN

Birmingham Group To Entertain Junior High Girls And Mothers

The Birmingham branch of the American Association of University Women will entertain the eighth grade girls of the Birmingham junior high school and their mothers next Wednesday afternoon at the Baldwin Public Library. A discussion of girls' colleges will be a feature of the afternoon.

Mr. F. Farrington Holt is chairman of the event and Mrs. Don Hawley is in charge of the refreshments. This is the first of a series of groups to be entertained by the American Association of University Women.

Hills Club Starts Bridge Luncheons

A spring bridge luncheon for the women members of Oakland Hills Country club and their guests will be given next Monday. Special entertainment will be provided at the luncheon in the form of a musicale.
Mrs. Frank Blanton, chairman of the summer committee, announces that the bridge luncheon will be on the first Monday of every month throughout the summer. Arrangements have been made for unusual and interesting entertainment to feature these events.

A Choice Imported English Candy
FOX'S
Glacier Mints
For Those Who Love Fine Candy
The finest, most delicious peppermint in the world is grown in quaint old England. These luscious Glacier Mints are made and imported direct from London. No mint you have tasted can compare with these. They come in large 6 1/2 oz. glass, air tight containers as fresh as the day they were made. Here is an ideal "snibbling" candy that melts in your mouth. Try a jar, at this unusually low price.

75c
Special Friday and Saturday
Jordan Almonds
Another shipment of fresh Jordan Almonds has just been received. These are an assorted lot—some with thick sugar coating and crisp, fresh almond centers in assorted tints. Others with large fresh almond centers and glazed sugar coatings. These regularly sell at 7c and 8c per pound. This week-end you can buy them at this special price.

54c lb.
BIRMINGHAM 112 W. Maple Ave. PHONE 9044
PONTIAC 69 N. Saginaw St. PHONE 515
Stewart's

SOME OF THE DRIVE WORKERS

Here are a group of prominent workers in the Community House drive. From left to right: Mrs. C. R. Wilson, general chairman; Miss Mary Clark Griffith, resident hostess; Mrs. W. G. Lerchen, Mrs. R. H. Mann and Mrs. Charles J. Frank, Mrs. Robert Shain, Mrs. Sarah Sly, Mrs. William Harris, Mrs. George T. Hendrix, Mrs. Frederick Dickinson, Mrs. A. J. Stahelin, Mrs. Jay Wash, Mrs. Frederick Holt, Miss of the $12,000 quota.

Social Briefs

Mr. Edward W. Shattuck, of Merrill road, gave a dance last Friday night at his home, for 25 couples honoring Mrs. Shattuck on her birthday.
Mrs. Francis Bagby, of Dorchester road, and Mrs. Norman Eble, of Yorkshire road, entertained Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw, who is leaving June 6 for a visit to the British Isles, at luncheon in Detroit and a matinee at the Garrick.

Miss Maxine Taylor, of Southfield road, was hostess at the Detroit Athletic club, for eight guests honoring Miss Charlotte Reid, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Reid, of Detroit, whose marriage to Mr. James Garvey, of Detroit, is to take place June 19. The occasion was a luncheon and personal shower. Bridal appointments, made the table attractive, were a miniature altar with linens and groans and attendants formed a centerpiece.
Mrs. W. Whitton Raymond, of Harmon avenue, entertained last Thursday at a small dinner honoring Miss Edith Roberts, of Detroit. Miss Roberts leaves soon for a trip through southern Europe.

Mrs. George Butler, of Lake Lake road, is entertaining the Sans Souci club today at a bridge luncheon given at her home.
Mrs. B. J. Taylor, and Miss Maxine Taylor, of Southfield avenue, are leaving today by boat for Buffalo and then on by train to

Mr. Edward W. Shattuck, of Merrill road, gave a dance last Friday night at his home, for 25 couples honoring Mrs. Shattuck on her birthday.
Mrs. Francis Bagby, of Dorchester road, and Mrs. Norman Eble, of Yorkshire road, entertained Mrs. Joseph Hinshaw, who is leaving June 6 for a visit to the British Isles, at luncheon in Detroit and a matinee at the Garrick.

Miss Maxine Taylor, of Southfield road, was hostess at the Detroit Athletic club, for eight guests honoring Miss Charlotte Reid, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Reid, of Detroit, whose marriage to Mr. James Garvey, of Detroit, is to take place June 19. The occasion was a luncheon and personal shower. Bridal appointments, made the table attractive, were a miniature altar with linens and groans and attendants formed a centerpiece.
Mrs. W. Whitton Raymond, of Harmon avenue, entertained last Thursday at a small dinner honoring Miss Edith Roberts, of Detroit. Miss Roberts leaves soon for a trip through southern Europe.

Mrs. George Butler, of Lake Lake road, is entertaining the Sans Souci club today at a bridge luncheon given at her home.
Mrs. B. J. Taylor, and Miss Maxine Taylor, of Southfield avenue, are leaving today by boat for Buffalo and then on by train to

Mrs. Carl S. Fairbanks, and her two small sons, Bobbie and Carl Jr., of Yorkshire road, is at present visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Green, of Madison, N. J. Mrs. Fairbanks intends to remain there until late in the summer.
Mrs. M. E. Rundel, of Fort Huachuca, Ariz., is arriving here Saturday to visit her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Turby, of west Maple avenue. Mrs. Rundel intends to spend the rest of the summer here in Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeVos, of north Woodward avenue, left Tuesday morning for Lansing where they will attend the horse show.
Mrs. E. Phillips Standart, of Bloomfield Center, and her daughter, Miss Margaret Phillips

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Barbour have resigned their Hills home, "Briarbank." Miss Ella Barbour has recently returned from a series of visits in Washington, New York and Hot Springs.
Mr. and Mrs. Varuum Steinbaugh, of Cranbrook road, announce the birth on May 8 of a daughter, Joyce Mae Steinbaugh, was formerly Miss Helen Stringer, of Detroit.
Mrs. Clinton Sears, of Madison avenue, is entertaining eight guests at a bridge luncheon at her home Saturday.

Finger Waving
Is An Art
The smart woman of today cannot be too particular when she permits other hands to care for her hair. The finger wave is given here only by specialists, who are skilled in the art of coiffures.
We Also Specialize in the Natural-Looking Marcel and Permanent
CALL TODAY FOR APPOINTMENT
Powder Puff Beauty Shop
124 S. Woodward Phone 670
Marguerite Marcel Shop
PHONE 505 145 S. WOODWARD

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. DeVos, of north Woodward avenue, left Tuesday morning for Lansing where they will attend the horse show.
Mrs. E. Phillips Standart, of Bloomfield Center, and her daughter, Miss Margaret Phillips

Christ Church
CRANBROOK
Corner Lone Pine and Cranbrook Roads
BLOOMFIELD HILLS
SUNDAY SERVICE
Service and Sermon 11:00 A. M.
(Sunday School at the same hour)

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Miss Lucy Catherine Mellen To Wed Charles Mann

A charming luncheon bridge for 35 guests was given at the Grand House the last Saturday by Mrs. Harvey L. Mellen, of Ferndale avenue, announcing the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lucy Catherine Mellen to Donald Charles Mann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland H. Mann, of 4111 Spring flowers ornamented the tables and at each guest's place was a corsage of sweetheart roses and sweet loaves with cards bearing the names of the engaged couple. Both Miss Mellen and Mr. Mann are popular among the younger set of Birmingham.

TEACHERS' CLUB TO GIVE BENEFIT

The State Normal College club of Birmingham Teachers will present at the Birmingham Theater tomorrow night another of their series of benefit performances to raise money for the quota subscribed toward an alumni building on the Ypsilanti campus. According to Mrs. Ethel Waterman, a member of the club, who is in charge of sale of tickets, approximately $250 is needed to fund the subscription.
The program featured by the "Smart Set," starring William Haines, "A Captain comes," "The Immigrant," and organ solos by Morgan Garreau, News reels, a film in a film "Hoige-Loige," "Early in the Morning," rendered by Edgar Guest, moving pictures of the Senior Washington trip to the capitol city recently and selections by the Birmingham High School band will be on the program.
Tickets may be procured from any of the members of the club in the Birmingham schools.

GUILD TO MEET

The Women's Missionary Guild of the First Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Harry Allen, 410 west Maple avenue, next Wednesday, May 30, at a picnic luncheon will be served.

FORESTERS TO MEET

The Independent Order of Foresters, court of Birmingham No. 4206, will meet Tuesday at the home of Mr. W. D. Denney, 419 east Benvanilla avenue.
Mrs. James E. Duffy, Jr., who with her small daughter, Peggy, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Barbour, of "Briarbank," Saturday returned to her home in Bay City.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus D. Pope, of "Apple Lane Farm" left this week to attend the commencement of their daughter, Miss Lee Pope who is graduating from the Law and Beyond school at Stanford, Conn. Miss Pope will travel abroad this summer with a party of classmates.
Mr. and Mrs. Morris M. Halder, of Dorchester road, Miss Mary Adele Shaw, Horace Shaw

St. James' Church

The Reverend WARNER L. FORBETH RECTOR
Sunday
8:00 a. m. Holy Eucharist.
9:45 a. m. Church School.
11:00 a. m. Kindergarten & Primary.
11:00 a. m. Morning Prayer and Sermon by the Rector.
5:30 p. m. Young People.

and Edwin G. Kay, of Detroit are leaving Wednesday for a short visit to the Thousand Islands.
Mrs. Chester W. Hawkins has been called to Yale, Mich., the cause of the illness of her father. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins have recently moved into their new house on Aspen road.
W. C. P. U. TO MEET
The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet next Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. William Beer, 408 Forest avenue.
There are now more than 42,000 women employed in the mines of Japan, but new regulations prohibit the employment of women underground in future.

THE HARPER METHOD SHOP
Beauty Culture IN ALL ITS BRANCHES—Scientifically by expert operators
Make an appointment for a sitting for the new Piquant Bob It's the latest cut
PERMANENT WAVES THAT LOOK NATURAL
FOR APPOINTMENT PHONE 1015 QUARTON BUILDING

Announcing... A CHANGE OF LOCATION
Because of the increase in business and the corresponding need for more room—
The Irene Hat Shop
will move on Tuesday, June 19, to new and larger quarters at 143 SOUTH WOODWARD
in the
Birmingham Theatre Building
(One door North of the present location)
Our Phone number remains the same—
519
In conjunction with our removal we are featuring a number of NEW hats, both felt and straw in the popular models and latest colors—
$3
THE IRENE HAT SHOP

An Announcement
That we may better care for the increasing number of persons who have become regular patrons—
The Marguerite Marcel Shop
announces an enlargement of their present location—taking over the space formerly occupied by the Irene Hat Shop (which is now located one door north).
This enlargement was made necessary that we might continue to render service of the same high standard that has always been our pride, and not only will this give our patrons more convenience, but it allows the installation of recently purchased equipment, thus making our service even more efficient.
We thank you for your interest in this announcement.
Ladies Haircutting, Finger Waving and Permanent Waving Personally by Mr. Drab
FOR APPOINTMENT Phone 505

BLOOMFIELD HILLS ANTIQUE SHOP
CHINTZ • EARLY AMERICAN FURNITURE • GIFTS
172 South Woodward Avenue • Birmingham, Michigan, Telephone 1625