

A Fifth of a Century

November 1908 November 1928

OMORROW. November 2nd, marks another milestone in the growth of the First State Savings Bank. A FIFTH OF A CENTURY ago, the doors of this bank opened for business. Ever since it has been recognized as an institution where complete banking facilities have been supplemented with a service that is both strong and of the utmost convenience to its users.

During these many years of banking, the First State Savings Bank has, with its patrons and the community, faced many conditions and problems; among them times of financial stress, of war and readjustment. Through it all it has stood firm, doing its best for its customers in trying times and good ones—just as it does today.

In surveying the growth of the First State Savings

Bank, one finds it to be a remarkable, and steady growth. In the aggregate, the total resources have more than doubled every five years. At the close of 1908 the resources were $149,800.13; at the close of 1913, $399,802.87; at the close of 1918, $789,142.50; at the close of 1923, $1,497,170.64; TODAY, the resources are $3,454,656.43. These figures tell the story of a successful past, and point to the future with confidence.

This record is one to be proud of, for it proves the strength of organization and the sound banking policies upon which the First State Savings Bank is based. It proves, also, the safety, convenience, and uniform courtesy that characterize transactions in this bank. Above all, it proves the integrity of the officers and directors—a stabilating factor of any business, particularly of a financial organization.

Tomorrow, on its birthday, you are most cordially invited to visit this friendly bank. The officers will be glad to explain how it can help YOU. Remember, it is YOUR BANK, to use whenever your life's program requires the assistance of experienced bankers, with a strong organization behind them.
