VILLAGES AND THE VILLAGE

(Concluded from Page 1) preachers, it seems, must have their chuckles.

A man and his wife were walking about the lower part of the new building, gazing with apparent personal pride at the shining walls and ceilings, the new office furniture, and the general beauty of the edifice. Said he to her, "See, won't it be fine when we get the new community house finished—this old town will have a lot to be proud of." What he said to her was probably said by hundreds of other he's to her's Monday evening.

Flowers—Flowers—why the flowers sold at Convention Hall or B. B. in Detroit had nothing on the village Municipal Building Monday night. Almost everywhere you went you were given rare glimpses of a rare floral beauty; every color of the spectrum was present—and as one walked out of the place into the cold night the spectrum dissolved into the whiteness of Birmingham's first real snow of the year. Admirers of the new edifice certainly accepted the florists' admonition to "say it with flowers."

And then the kids, too—the Members of the Baldwin high school band surprised the people by their ability to play some very fine band music at the affair. Garbed in natty uniforms of maroon and white, the boys, under the able leadership of A. W. Berndt, made the welkin ring with stirring music during the evening. Undoubtedly, more than one husband and wife were proud of their son's musical ability.

YES SIR, IT'S GREAT. SAY THE HUNTSMEN

(Concluded from Page 1) Township supervisor, was the first of this group of the deer-hunters to return. He arrived home Sunday bringing tales of the sport which draws thousands into the north every fall from Nov. 15 to 30.

The little band stayed at the cabin on the reserve which covers 4,000 acres. The season opened Thursday and by noon seven of the party had lined their sights and peeped down a rifle barrel at racy denizens of the back woods. At 12 o'clock seven deer were hanging from the pole back in camp. John McGirr was the first to bag his animal and shot the second for camp use the same morning.

All the hunters chose smaller bucks for their targets. These were not carrying six or eight-point antlers. The larger 12 and 14-point bucks were often sighted but were left for propagation.

Most of the Birmingham party is still in the north. Those who comprised it include William Bennett, Mr. Moore, Russell McBride, J. J. Morehouse, Allen McGirr, John McGirr, Albert McGirr, John Wilson, Harvey German, Charles Parks, Walter Lewis of Pontiac and George Wilton, sheriff of Alcona county.

Sixty-four entries took part in a mink-hoggy championship contest in Glasgow.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
Otto F. Reier, realtor: "Properties located south of Lincoln avenue are rapidly coming into demand for building. A great deal of development from a real estate and building point may be expected in this section."

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
James W. Cobb, postman: "The postoffice is doing 25 percent more business now than at this time last year. Last month we handled 4,000 sacks of incoming parcel post."

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
Floyd S. Buck, justice of the peace: Court activity flourishes following numerous arrests made by the police over the week end. The remainder of the work it drops off to almost nothing."

WOMAN INJURED IN TAXI CRASH

Mrs. Gertie E. Hicks, owner of the Irene hat shop, is recovering today in St. Joseph Mercy hospital in St. Joseph, Mich., from injuries incurred when a truck collided with a taxi in which she was riding Monday afternoon in Detroit.

Investigation is being made in the accident to determine who was at fault. Mrs. Hicks was thrown against the side of the car when the truck hit the cab broadside. The accident took place on Griswold avenue.

X-ray plates were made to determine the extent of Mrs. Hicks' injuries which were believed to include fractured ribs.

GRID CAPTAINS

In the long run, there are just two ways to get joy out of a costly possession—first to buy it, and then to give it away. There's a thrill in getting it, but this years off. Just having it is no longer much fun. The only way really to enjoy it, then, is to feel the satisfaction of being a benefactor and giving it to someone else."
