

Seen in the Shops of Birmingham

By GERRY

I had the loveliest surprise this week when I visited the Bloomfield Hills Antique Shop, 172 S. Woodward Ave. . . I found something so ENTIRELY different that I was simply thrilled! . . . Cunning Doll furniture from the Tryon Toy-Makers and Wood Carvers down in North Carolina! . . . Tiny fairylike desk sets in most perfect Heppelwhite manner with a tiny chair to match and equipped with a blotter and a QUILL pen! . . . A table EXACTLY like "group-up" ones with 4 matching chairs! . . . Napkin rings that are pussy cats and rabbits! . . . A Covered Wagon! . . . A Train built entirely of wood! . . . Oh youngsters will adore this display so DON'T let them miss it!

It won't be long now until most of us will call it a day as far as Golf and other sports are concerned and be only too glad to tuck our feet on the hearth during the shut-in days of winter! . . . but one SIMPLY does have to be active and what a lot of delightful things can be devised by using up this energy! . . . The Devoe Paint & Art Store, 145 S. Woodward Ave., has a most complete collection of paints, brushes and the like and many an old and discarded piece of furniture can be transformed to a charming addition to the room. Beautiful to say nothing of making beautiful Christmas gifts.

These frosty nights when tiny soldiers are ON PARADE there is nothing so comfy as a warm snugly bathrobe, and The Kenwood robes that the Little Wooden Soldier issues out of his delightful commissary, 125 W. Maple Ave. . . are just the kind that tiny Toy Sergeants adore! . . . There are so many lovely colors and patterns to choose from! . . . and OH! such smart and swaggy styles!

She isn't a girl, if she wouldn't just LOVE a set of all sorts of toilet goods put up in attractive packages. There! One Christmas gift problem is solved. Just go to Shain's Drug Store and see those sets of Cheramy's April Showers and Cappel complete from the tiny cakes of soap to the luxurious bath powders. Or if she is one of those persons who reminds you of violet and old lace, she's bound to find JUST what she wanted in one of those sets of Old English Lavender or Old English Jessamine O'Devon. And just a secret if you want an absolutely NEW gift, there's that delicate new perfume "FRESSIA" put out by the Old English Co.

There's Music in the air at Christmas Time! . . . and never the whole year through is there a day when music is so lovely! . . . The ideal family gift is some musical instrument . . . say a RADIO for Dad! . . . a Grand Piano for Mother and the Daughters, or a "Sax" for Brother! . . . Grinnell's Music Shop, 121 N. Woodward Ave., has the most complete line of QUALITY musical instruments in the village! . . . They carry the weight of the Grinnell name which has become synonymous with musical instruments! . . . Remember just a month until Christmas! NOW'S the time to choose! . . . and you may OF COURSE buy on deferred payments!

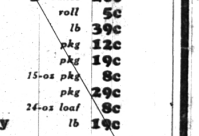

If the mountain WON'T come to Mahomet! . . . Mahomet simply MUST go to the Mountain! . . . Appropos of which . . . since it is absolutely impossible to have the marvelous cook from the Fleur des Lis Tea Room in your home on Thanksgiving Day . . . why not take the family to the Fleur des Lis down in Bloomfield Center! . . . I know from my previous experience with the delicious food served in this delightful place that a Thanksgiving Dinner there would simply be heavenly! . . . OR AT LEAST you can secure a pie from there to grace your own table . . . should you decide to eat at home.

And now is the time of family reunion and that long promised visit we were going to make. It seems if one isn't busy making plans for guests, due to just EXACTLY as busy bustling around getting things ready for the Christmas trip. And why not look one's very BEST for the grand reunion. Drop in at Mrs. Freeman's Beauty Salon in the Levinson Building, and let her give you one of those delightful facials. And for those of you who have a "crown of glory" that's snow-white, did you know that Mrs. Freeman specializes in bleaching white hair so that it's REALLY white, and no longer an ugly yellow?

TO ALL OUR FRIENDS, OLD AND NEW . . . AND ALL THOSE NEAR AND DEAR TO THEM . . . WE WISH A HAPPY THANKSGIVING DAY. Hallock's Grocery 118 W. Maple Ave.

Yo Ho A Sail in Sight! . . . What news to stranded mariners that is! . . . but oh for sweeter news for stranded Christmas Shoppers to know that this year is a SALE and that it will bring ready relief to many a leaky pocketbook! Mulholland's Dry Goods Co. is now in the midst of their "Big Savings Removal Sale" and the SAVINGS are tremendous! . . . Take your Christmas Gift List here and see how FAR pennies really go! . . . And you

There is nothing nicer to top off the Thanksgiving dinner than a generous box of candy to lull you to sleep! . . . and of course that one might be TRULY Thankful the candy should be none other than Stewart's! This delightful shop, 112 W. Maple Ave., offers such a marvelous selection of candies as pure as they are delicious; then, too, don't forget this same shop is headquarters for delectable desserts . . . whether one chooses plain ice cream or elaborate special shapes!

Always at this time of year so many of us sigh deeply and WISH that we had started a Christmas Savings Account! For OH wouldn't it be gorgeous to get a nice check just about now to spend for Gifts! . . . Why not be SURE to join The Christmas Savings Club THIS YEAR at the First State Bank, Woodward Ave. and Maple! . . . Anyways it's such a delightful place to visit and everyone is so helpful and friendly that it's a REAL pleasure to save! . . . And Oh next Christmas what a GRA-A-AND and Glorious feeling it will be!

Whether mere man would walk a mile for a Camel or not depends entirely on his preference in cigarettes! . . . I am SURE, however, that any man would gladly RUN a mile for one of the gorgeous Camel-Hair overcoats shown at Chas. R. Peck Sons, 102 S. Woodward Ave! . . . They're marvelous affairs that simply ooze warmth! . . . the perfect hand tailoring completes a toga that is gorgeous enough for any roamin' Senator! . . . or even one that stays at home! And of course like "ham and peas" and Peck's have the most complete line of lovely scarfs I have ever seen! . . . And wonderful Gifts THEY make!

Think of preparing a cake for the oven in 3 minutes—whipping potatoes to snowy fluffiness in a minute—freezing ice cream in 15 minutes—mixing velvet—smooth mayonnaise in a jiffy! These are a few of the countless food-preparing tasks that the new KitchenAid performs at the snap of a switch.

That you may know how completely KitchenAid eliminates the wearisome routine of food preparation, we are demonstrating this wonderful electric servant in our display rooms. You may can buy for the whole family. . . I noticed in particular some beautiful handbags that will be sold at practically a 20% discount! . . . and other marvelous gift items! . . . JUST STOP, IN you'll be amazed at the marvelous values offered!

Lovely footwear is just as important an item in the lounging ensemble as it is in the most elaborate costume imaginable . . . in fact it is THE most important item! . . . The most charming negligee loses its appeal when topped off or rather bottomed off with a shiftless worn looking pair of slippers or mules . . . with Christmas in the offing I can't think of a more delightful nor more acceptable gift than the exquisite slippers and mules shown at Williams Best Shop, 121 W. Maple Ave. . . They show beautiful colored leather affairs . . . some in satin and gleaming patent leather with peace or other colored satin linings! . . .

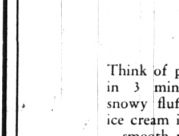

Each year Christmas Packages seem to take on added charm . . . for oh the wrappings are so lovely and I'm sure that The Gift and Art Shop, 105 W. Maple Ave., have WITTE the loveliest of all and so VERY reasonable. Besides cards, and ribbons, stickers and the like! And OH I MUST tell you of the glorious flowers I saw there made of ribbons in such exquisite color combinations that they were fairly breath taking! . . . They are as lovely as the most perfect blooms of summer . . . and SO real looking! . . . and BUILT of all most reasonably priced! . . . They make gorgeous gifts to be worn on winter coats!

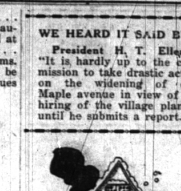

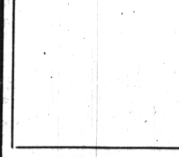

Christmas Greeting Cards at Woodward Pharmacy

WE HEARD IT SAID BY— President H. T. Ellsby:— "It is hardly up to the commission to take drastic action on the widening of east Maple avenue in view of the hiring of the village planner until he submits a report."

Morris Goodman, Fairmotto Hotel, Hancock and John R. avenues, Detroit, pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge, yesterday and was fined $15 by Justice Floyd S. Buck. He was arrested by Patrolman Isma Banks after a chase ending when Goodman ran into the car driven by Mrs. George Duncon of Ferndale. They were traveling south on Woodward avenue in Bloomfield Hills. The woman's car was slightly damaged and Goodman's car was badly smashed.
