Mary Brennan Becomes Bride Of Donald McLean

At a society wedding at the home of her parents last Friday afternoon, Miss Mary Trevor Brennan became the bride of Donald McLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McLean of Ann Arbor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Brennan, of Pontiac. Her parents and the groom are members of the class of 1929 in the College of Literature at the University of Michigan, where Mr. McLean is a student of law. His father is a lawyer. The bride was a resident of Hesby Barber dormitory.

An improvised bower of yellow and white roses and greenery lined with butterfly roses formed the background for the ceremony.

Rev. Floyd E. Lowe, pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, read the service.

The bride chose for the occasion ivory chiffon. It was cut with a bias and had a fullness at the waist, with a lace hem and pale bolero. Crystals trimmed the bodice and were carried out in her necklace and in the hemline. Other parts are taken from a red dress.

Mr. and Mrs. McLean will make their home at the McLean Apartments in Ann Arbor, where they will continue their college work.
