THRILL IN MOVIE

GREAT DAY FOR TRAFFIC COP ARRIVES — HE IS PRAISED!

A thrilling moment in the ham theater. Conrad Nagel and "Michigan Kid" to be shown to Renee Afore are starred in the morrow at the Kunky-Brown film.

That one great day, dreamed of in the heart of every traffic policeman, has arrived!
"Yes sir, it is actually here. For the first time since they came into existence, praise has been given a traffic officer. Many of them, in fact, children got safely across the streets. I understand that you yourself are attentive and particularly careful to see that Birmingham residents are able to cross Woodward without endangering themselves."
"There are probably a great many of us who feel that we have suffered the past weeks in having to go out of our way, and I think many of us are forgetting or overlooking the finer and bigger things the Birmingham police are doing, in giving protection to our children and our families."
"From now on I am going to remember that for all the inconveniences we suffer through Woodward being torn up are trivial compared with the many difficulties the police have to contend with, during this period."
"I think you all deserve a great deal of credit for the way you have handled traffic and more important for the security we can feel in having such able and capable men giving such careful attention to the safety of our children and families."
— Paul E. Siple, Eagle Boy Scout from Pennsylvania, was chosen as the country's best scout to accompany Commander E. B. Byrd on his expedition to the South Pole.
