IRISH SINK NAVY BEFORE MAMMOTH GRID CROWD

Johnny Niemie, left half of Notre Dame, circles the Navy line with the ball for a good gain in the second quarter of the Irish-Middle football clash which Notre Dame won, 7-0, before a record crowd at Chicago. The Irish won in the last quarter when Niemie hauled a successful pass to Johnny Colerick, substitute end.

on our return, Sept. 18, there was a slight shower to remind us, as it were, that it was high time to go. The Park season extends from June 20 until Sept. 19. As it happened, our party, arriving at West Yellowstone or the Western Entrance on the morning of Sept. 14, was the second last to enter the Park this year.

Pass, at about 5. At the Haynes Figure Shop, near Tower Falls, we made the acquaintance of a brown bear and two cubs who were so insistent upon following us into the store that the shopkeeper was obliged to chase them away with a broom.

Among the other main attractions of the Upper Geyser Basin is the Handkerchief Pool, which is a sort of a natural laundry. A handkerchief, thrown into it, is sucked into its depths and returned in a laundered condition. The geyser, aptly termed Old Faithful, is still the same old reliable standby it has been for several generations.
