Improved in health, Sir Austen Chamberlain, British minister of foreign affairs, has arrived in the United States, with Lady Chamberlain, after a trip across the Atlantic and through the Panama canal. Photo shows Sir Austen and Lady Chamberlain on their arrival in New York. "I'm a self-made man, that's what I am—a self-made man," he said. SMITH BEGINS SOUTHERN CAMPAIGN Has "Lindy" Touch

Col. Lindbergh's fame still inspires designers to add characteristic touches to garments and name them after him. This afternoon ensemble of Brazilian brown transparent velvet has the "eagle's wings" decoration applied on the blouse, which is of silk and metal threads woven in coin dot pattern.

Ex-Maharajah Sued

A suit for $60,000, for alleged damages, has been brought against the former Maharajah of Indore, now the husband of the former Nancy Miller, of Seattle, Wash., by Sowkabi Pandarination Rajpurkar. She charges him with imprisoning both her and her daughter after her refusal to send the girl to him. The former maharajah is contesting the case on the grounds that the incident took place outside the jurisdiction of Bombay, where the suit is pending.
