LEAGUE CHAMP CHANCE FADES IN 18-6 TILT

Four Birmingham Gridders Hurt On Rain-Soaked Field At Bath City

HAZEL-PARK ON FRIDAY

By GEORGE G. WILLIAMS
The three year old Jinx that Mt. Clemens has held over Birmingham appeared again Friday as the two teams played in the rain at Mt. Clemens and the Baldwinites took their first beating of the season. When the players wiped the mud from their eyes after the final whistle, and applied the towels to their drenched heads, the score was 18 to 6 with Mt. Clemens boasting the 18 points.

Hazel Park High School is next on the Birmingham schedule. The Maroons meet Hazel Park on the Pierce field tomorrow at 3:45 p. m. This begins the last half of the season. "While our teams are as yet not perfectly developed, of course, and our players are somewhat smaller than the average, the aspect of a good season looms," Cooney says. Practices in the subjects are being held regularly. Cooney announces, and it is planned that before long several good games will be promoted.
