"Show me the Way to Go Home" . . . thus ran the popular song of a summer or so ago . . . Well, songs may come and songs may go, but one REAL "way to go home" is to save for one! . . . It's a marvelous habit to know that every penny placed in a Savings Account will in turn grub for MORE pennies for you!

student to secure the gleaming, glistening "Six" of his dreams on convenient terms! . . . After all "what is school without a bank!" . . . he will tell the fun of the school year is belonging to the Bank!

Half the fun of going to College . . . and a sure cure for college blues . . . is an attractive room! . . . The Gift & Art Shop, 105 W. Maple Ave., offers a tempting assortment of unusual furnishings! . . . Clever lamps and shades! . . . Book-Ends . . . Tiny wall clocks . . . exquisite pottery and glassware . . . diaries . . . brass and copper ware! . . . Oh, a dozen and one delightful pieces that simply "make" a room! . . . And best of all they cut a surprisingly slight bit from one's "budget." I can't think of a more delightful "going away" party than a shower of gifts of this kind. I'm sure 'twould be a MOST successful affair! . . . It COULDN'T help but be!

Once again busy students are "working to beat the band" . . . and just as busy are those who are working to make the band! . . . This latter group will, I'm sure, be delighted to know that Grinnell's Music Shop, 121 N. Woodward Ave., not only has a complete line of musical instruments of every description! . . . But furthermore have arranged a special payment plan which enables a student to secure the gleaming, glistening "Six" of his dreams on convenient terms! . . . After all "what is school without a bank!" . . . he will tell the fun of the school year is belonging to the Bank!

It won't be long till little Johnny . . . and perhaps sister Susan will be waking up with a most terrible "tummy ache" . . . and whether it's real . . . or a conspiracy to secure a day home from school a large bottle of Castor Oil is a sure cure! . . . Then too most families have been summering for the past few months at lakes or mountainside . . . and Medicine Chests need renovating! . . . All medicines of course lose their efficiency with age. And if I were a housekeeper, I know I'd stop at Shain's Drug Store, 119 W. Maple Ave., and ask one of the four registered pharmacists there the exact "mileage" of each particular drug I bought, then by dating the bottle I would always have a Medicine Chest filled with actual cures!

Ten little toes sitting in cramped quarters in school all day long are apt to get pretty restless and high over the lost delights of vacation days when barefeet or light, airy sandals made life so enjoyable! . . . However, The Williams Shoe Store, 121 W. Maple Ave., solves this problem very easily with the Pied Piper Shoe! . . . They are so marvelously constructed that tiny, growing feet enjoy all the freedom of vacation days . . . and yet they are smartly styled in all the latest and newest models and leathers! . . . They are the type of shoes that both parents and children vote unanimously for!

Tiny soldiers are quick to learn that in the school parade one must have snick and span uniforms! . . . And the Little Wooden Soldier at The Tot Shop, 125 West Maple, does his share by guarding a dozen or more adorable wearables for The Colonel's Lady and the Colonel too! This clever shop carries a complete stock of lovely sweaters, so suitable for school wear! . . . Smartly tailored shirts and blouses! . . . Skirts that may be made to order in any style or material! . . . And as for "undies" . . . exquisite lingerie that Miss seven or ten or thereabouts will be so proud of . . . and "Undergirds" that small boys will mimic in chorus grown up soldiers, and say: "Next to MYSELF I like these best!"

When I stopped in at Marguerite's this week I found the last finishing touches being added to her splendor! . . . And right in the center of one of the artistic new windows was a gorgeous silver cup that I KNEW meant something! . . . Offhand I could think of a dozen reasons why this marvelous Beauty Shop, 145 S. Woodward Avenue, should be awarded a cup . . . but I did have to find out just what PARTICULAR reason won this one! . . . I learned that the masculine member of Marguerite's staff had been awarded the cup at the National Hairdressers Convention for his Permanent Wave! . . . I was very pleased of course . . . However, having seen the marvelous wave he gives . . . I can't say I was surprised!

"Little Nan Etticoat had a short petticoat" . . . so goes the old nursery rhyme! . . . One feels that Nan was surely the stunted child, upon viewing the lavish assortment of exquisite wearables Maxine Hart is blessed with! . . . I've told you before of her charming shop, nestled in the heart of Bloomfield Center! . . . and each visit it impresses me as being lovelier! . . . It is a perfect setting for the perfect goods that Maxine carries! . . . lustrous, lovely velvets . . . gleaming silks and satins! . . . Models that are simply irresistible! . . . and best of all plenty of larger sizes!

After all it's said and done whether it be in one's personal wardrobe, the furnishings of the home . . . it's the little accessories that give charm and distinction! . . . And The Bloomfield Hills Antique Shop, 172 S. Woodward Ave., has so many exquisite pieces! . . . This week I found an adorable collection of tiny figurines! . . . Dainty Chelsea shepherdesses and their ladies! . . . A group of modeled "London Green" so perfect that I coveted the entire lot! . . . Tiny porcelain merchants crying their wares! . . . Oh, yes, I also saw some Pickwick Bottles and some marvelous new brassware! . . . I could easily picture the charming room which would hold these treasures! . . . But alas a maiden lady can't dream too much!

The old saying is "as easy as pie!" . . . I think, however, it should be "as easy as EATING pie!" especially if it's the pie one finds at The Fleur des Lis Tea Room, down in Bloomfield Center! You'll agree with me, when you try it, that it's the most marvelous pie you've ever tasted! . . . and at that it's only ONE of the culinary miracles wrought by the capable cook of this smart Tea Room! . . . Small wonder that the place is crowded always . . . and EVERYONE has such a contented look! . . . I might mention again that the Fleur des Lis is now open until 11:00! . . . Plenty of time to "dial up" a bit before that dinner date!

It's never been properly proven if Solomon was such a sartorial masterpiece because he was a wise man! . . . Or if he was a wise man because he "knew his tweeds!" . . . Be that as it may the modern Solomon knows that the success of his ensemble is as great as the least of its accessories! . . . So don't blame the poor huddled masses if they study and ponder over shoes, ties, socks, "undies," etc.; for 'tis no trifling matter! . . . Though I will say this much: REAL Solomons are wise enough to know that The Chat R. Post Sons, 102 S. Woodward Ave., have a most marvelous assortment of masculine accessories! . . . they'll please the most fastidious!

I use a marvelous new assortment of colors and materials! . . . They must come in by the carload! . . . Never have the styles been simpler, and newer, lovelier, than this Fall, and I think the secret lies in the gorgeous new colorings! . . . These shirts make stout models from Gage, Meadowbrook and Hollywood, and each one seems more perfect than the other! . . . Oh, twill be no task at all to FIND a hat . . . But TWILL only be a problem to decide WHICH one to choose! . . . Phone your news items to The Eccentric, Phones 11 and 12.
