ENGLAND HAILS PLAIN MR. TUNNEY

CINCINNATI GIRL WINS MARATHON

Helen Phillips, 15-year-old mermaid of Cincinnati, O., won the Ohio river marathon held at Cincinnati, defeating a large field of swimmers.

BYRD'S SMALLEST PLANE BUILT AT BUFFALO, N. Y.

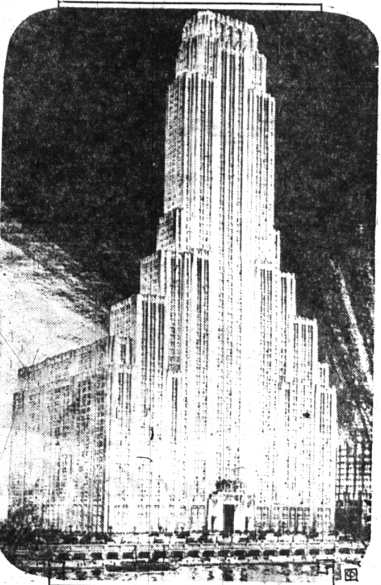

The monoplane shown above, a contribution of Buffalo, N. Y., to the Byrd Antarctic expedition, is the smallest plane which will be taken to the south polar regions and will be used for flying between various camps of Commander Richard E. Byrd. The craft combines many features of the Fairchild, Fokker and Reliance planes.

BEATS TRUDY EDERLE; WINS $10,000

This pleasant smile of Eitel Hertle, 20-year-old girl swimmer, is a $10,000 one, for that's how much she won in capturing the Wrigley 10-mile marathon swim for women at Toronto, Canada. In winning Miss Hertle beat Gertrude Ederle, first woman to swim English channel, and other star mermaids.

CHICAGO LOOKS TOWARD THE SKY

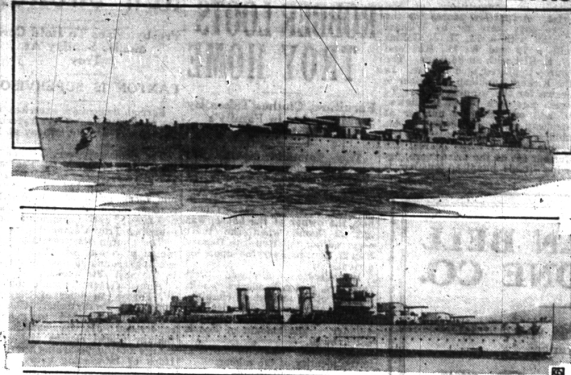

Sketch of a new 75-story skyscraper, to be taller than any existing building in the world, announced for Chicago. The structure is to be built for the Apparel Manufacturers' Mart Building corporation on Wacker Drive, and is to cost $45,000,000. In addition to mart space the building will house a 1,000-room hotel, a skyscraper garage and two convention halls. It is to be 75 feet higher than the Woolworth building in New York City.

Ben Nevis, the highest mountain in Great Britain, has been pierced for the longest water tunnel in the world, 15 miles in length when completed.

Among the Moors, if a wife does not become the mother of a boy, she may be divorced with the consent of the tribe and can marry again.

AMERICA WONDERS OVER EFFECT OF NEW NAVAL PACT

American naval officials are not sure just what effect the new Franco-British naval pact will have on the interests of the United States on the high seas. It is seen as a forerunner of another armament limitation program which would work seriously to the disadvantage of the United States, Washington naval experts contend. Above is the H. M. S. Rodney, which, with its sister ship, the H. M. S. Nelson, British cruisers, are said to be the two most powerful battleships afloat. Below shows the H. M. S. Berwick, new 10,000-ton British cruiser.

Opposes Moody

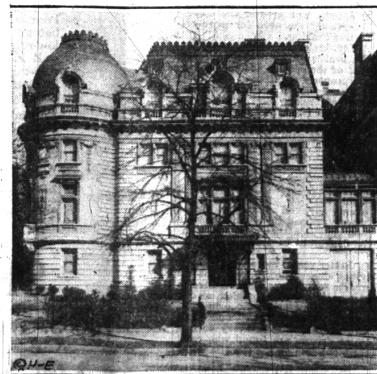

Dan Moody, Texas Democratic governor, who has been nominated for re-election, will have as his Republican opponent, W. H. Holmes, above, wealthy oil operator of Amarillo, who aspires to be the Lone Star state executive.

Map of Mine Blast

Map of location of mine disaster at No. 3 mine of the Iroquois Coal and Coke company at Coalport, Pa., which was rocked by an explosion as day and night shifts were changing turns. More than 150 men were working in the mine at the time. Most were saved, but rescue crews immediately began taking out bodies.

HOOVER'S CAPITAL HEADQUARTERS

This historic residence at 2315 Massachusetts avenue, Washington, has been turned over to the Republicans for the campaign headquarters of Herbert Hoover. The mansion is owned by Mrs. Francis Barger Moran, formerly of ardent Democratic sympathies.

"the Orchard
the Meadow
the Deep-tangled Wildwood"

SWEET is the road of life that turns at last back to the peaceful scenes of childhood. After all is said and done there was a quiet joy in those simple things so lightly accepted then . . . so dear to dreams of now.

And so, at length, we draw our plans for a rambling white house, where hollyhocks may bask by sunlit walls, crocuses peep unafraid from the grass, green vines climb up and wind themselves about the windows.

If you dream these dreams come out to Franklin Village. This is the place for such a home. This is the place that will restore to you . . . and give your children, what someday they will prize . . . "the orchard, the meadow, the deep-tangled wildwood" . . . and every loved scene that your infancy knew.
