WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
Dr. Alex S. Dieck, of Willett street: "The public offices of the United States need to be filled with men of character—and this holds good with special emphasis in the higher offices of the country. In our national legislative assemblies there is forever, it seems, an attempt being made by some one or other, representing this group or that group, to raise the protective tariff—when the tariff in many cases is so high today that it actually proves a menace."

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lewis and son George, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Popkey, Sunday.

Stanton Sperry of Chicago, Ill., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patterson and family.

Police are still without clues today as to the identity of the men who held up U. S. Heale in his florist shop on the Southfield road three miles south of Birmingham early Friday and escaped with $165.

Two armed men lay in wait for Mr. Heale to close his shop then forced him to surrender his purse, containing the money and several checks. They threw the checks away. They then drove rapidly north.

His description of the men was meagre.

FIRE RAZES TROY HOME

Department Hampered By Muddy Roads Near Blaze

A house valued at $3,500 the property of A. B. Millsbaugh, was burned to the ground at 5:54 p. m. Thursday, despite efforts of Birmingham firemen to fight the flames. The house was located on the Big Beaver road, one half mile east of the Adams road, and is approximately four miles from the village.

The fire was well under way by the time the village department arrived, the muddy roads making it impossible for them to arrive sooner, they declared.

A house on adjoining territory, also owned by Mr. Millsbaugh was saved. The entire property loss was estimated at $1,500, the remainder being covered by insurance.
