MOTHERS, SONS ENJOY AFFAIR

76 Guests Appear For DeMolay Dinner In Temple

The DeMolay banquet, honoring the mothers of the boys is thought today to be the most successful function of its kind ever held in Birmingham, according to the sponsors of the affair. The banquet was held last Friday night in the Masonic Temple, with approximately 76 mothers in attendance. Pastmaster counsellor J. W. Spencer was presented to two last year officers, Ralph Wilson and William Spencer by Clifford Harper and Jack Burkman, respectively, with brief speeches commending them. During their terms of office the local chapter won the cup in efficient chapter work in the contest between Royal Oak, Northville and Birmingham.

The "Mother's Word," was given by Mrs. Milton Grace, and response in behalf of the boys was expressed by James Spencer. T. Quinn, who was born in Africa of Irish parents and spent many years in that country, was the speaker of the evening. His address had to do with African working conditions for both
