BY DOROTHY E. WILLIAMS

INTEREST HIGH IN HILLS SHOW

Hunt Club To Be Scene Of Annual Breeders' Show August 24

With the exception of the annual breeders show to be held Aug. 24 at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club, Hills society is enjoying a lull. Considerable interest has been aroused by announcement of the mid-summer show and already entries are being listed.

The show which will take the form of a schooling for the state fair, is being arranged by Bernard E. Hopper, general chairman.

Events will continue through the day opening at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. At noon a luncheon will be served at the clubhouse, the show reopening at 1:30 o'clock.

Although entries are not yet listed, it is expected that many of last year's winners will be shown.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Lee A. White, village commissioner, "I think it is a shame to lock up any adolescent who, as a caddy, oversteps ordinary bounds while in the village. I believe in a safe-guarding property, and in finding some manner or method to make caddies less destructive. But caddies are caddies only because we adults have made golf what it is today, and I see no reason why we adults should shirk our duty and responsibility in working out a correct solution for the caddy problem in Birmingham."
