

DEATH TAKES DANIEL WALZ

Former Village Campaign Manager Succumbs In Ann Arbor Hospital

Word is received here of the death Saturday at the University Hospital, Ann Arbor, of Daniel C. Walz, manager of the Community House drive for funds in 1928. Death followed an operation. He was buried Tuesday afternoon in Ann Arbor, following services at the home of Dr. Victor F. Brown.

Mr. Walz was in Birmingham throughout the campaign and gained many friends during the strenuous days and nights devoted to organization and completion of collections for funds for the new building.

He has lived in both Detroit and Ann Arbor. Since leaving Birmingham he has been in Buffalo, N. Y.

He is survived by his widow, Eleanor Brown Walz and a ten months old daughter, Martha Ellen.

The sport program in the afternoon was made up of a number of features, chief of which perhaps was the ball game between the supervisors and county employes and tags of war between 10 men picked from the four roads districts of the county. Judge Dan Burton P. Daugherty and County Clerk H. V. Kennedy selected the personnel for the team representing the supervisors.

S. E. Anderson, Saginaw school coach; Merrill Schlaack of Birmingham and Ogle D. Scott of Royal Oak had charge of the races.

Ten men from each of the road districts of the county took part in the tug of war. Captains of the districts were C. G. Turner of Daugherty, J. H. Lemmon of Highland, Bert Layton of Orion, and E. T. McNeil of Pontiac.

escape. The rear seat of the small sedan, manned by the thugs, was covered with blood. No satisfactory explanation has been given by the captured men as to their source. They insist only that two of them staged the robbery.

Residents of Birmingham and police say three men left the bandit car as soon as it hit the guy wire and escaped through the woods. Two thugs were captured a third, and cursing at him in the effort to get him to hurry to cover, the villagers claim.

Barking of their dog awakened the family of F. J. Wolden of Winnetka, Ill., enabling them to escape from their blazing home.

RIVAL QUEENS OF THE COURTS

There's no doubt that Helen Wills, right, is the greatest of women tennis players, but pretty Betty Nuthall, the English star, is developing her game so fast that tennis experts predict the time isn't far distant when she will trouble America's Helen. This picture was taken during the recent Wightman Cup matches, won by the American players.

Lesson-Service was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday, August 18.

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me I seek thee early; for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness." (Isa. 26:9.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Soul and Spirit being one, God and soul are one, and that one never included in a limited mind or a limited body. Spirit is eternal, divine. Nothing but Spirit, Soul, can evolve life; for Spirit is more than all else. It does not exist in mortality." (p. 375).

GOLF CLUB OPENS HERE

Lancaster Hills On Twelve Mile Road Gets Under Way

The Lancaster Hills Golf club on the Twelve Mile and Telegraph roads is open today.

It is located on E. C. Baynes farm, and is comprised of a spacious clubhouse and a nine nine-hole golf course.

Activities are under full swing, under the management of Arthur Baynes, with Alex Gibb, acting as pro. It is open to the public, it has been announced.

Miss Ruth Martin of the Mississippi State College for women won the national hurl ball championship with a mark of 86 feet 6 inches, exceeding all previous records by nearly nine feet.

GOLF TOURNEY BEING PLANNED

Plans are being made for a Labor Day tournament which will be held at the Oakland County Public Golf Course, at Davaburg.

The public is invited to enter the tournament, and awards are to be made, according to A. T. Messer, Forester of the Oakland County road commission.

Qualifying rounds are now being played for handicapping purposes.

chased by a Bull Moose. It developed that "Mike," known as such to all Rotarians of this district, had put into Tobin's Harbor Wood; he was out taking pictures when the Moose, startled by a dog, made a bee-line for the Detroit sky-pilot; the latter managed to elude the enraged animal by completely circling a nearby building and was just catching up on himself when he came upon Coryell. "Rev. Rice did not recognize me and I did not tell him that I, too, belong to Rotary," said Mr. Coryell. "But he certainly was excited—couldn't have been any more so if the devil himself had been after him; I said excited, not scared."

Louis M. Randall, business manager of the board of education, is home again from his vacation. He, Mrs. Randall and their son, Louis Jr., journeyed to the home of Mr. Randall's sister, Mrs. Harry Baird, near Chesney, Wis. The highlight of the trip was the reunion between Mr. Randall and his father, McCallister Randall, a native of Birmingham. It was the first visit they have had in 29 years. Mr. Randall lives in California. He is a former member of the "Eccentrics," a club composed of the "old timers" and from whose ranks came the founders of this newspaper, 51 year ago—the late George H. Mitchell and the late Almeroy Whitehead.

King George of England by a remark to one of his nurses recently revealed that he does not take himself too seriously. He said, "Betty, a king is, after all, just a very ordinary kind of man, but one who has to live in very extraordinary kind of way that sometimes seems to have so little sense to it."

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
East G. Potter, of River-oak avenue: "All my life I have been connected with churches and lodges, and have often been called 'brother.' Personally, this is much bunk to me; so when I first became a member of the Highland Park Rotary club, and was called 'Earl'—a name that few outside of my family and friends used—you may rest assured that I welcomed the friendliness that it implied."

Miss Ruth Martin of the Mississippi State College for women won the national hurl ball championship with a mark of 86 feet 6 inches, exceeding all previous records by nearly nine feet.

Little Chats About Your Health

No. 31

What to Do If Tuberculosis Threatens

Realizing the danger of allowing tuberculosis to gain headway the U. S. Public Health Service advise as follows:

"Regard any cough lasting more than three weeks with suspicion. Buy a clinical thermometer and when in doubt watch your afternoon temperature. A daily rise of more than half a degree, except after exercise, is suspicious.

"Remember that tuberculosis is the most common of all serious diseases and that it may simulate the common cold, asthma, malaria, rheumatism, neurasthenia, dyspepsia and a host of other ailments."

If it is even suspected go to your doctor and let a careful examination establish the facts.

Always consult your doctor when illness threatens. Let us fill your prescriptions whenever medicine is prescribed.

Your Salesman Versus... Buying Committees

Your salesman may present your sales case effectively and convincingly, but he presents it to only one man. Purchasing decisions are rarely made by one individual. The purchasing agent gets the opinion of the superintendent and the master mechanic.

The treasurer checks the cost against his budget. The sales manager discusses the purchase with his luncheon companions. The president asks the directors for an appropriation.

Any one or all of these executives may affect the success of YOUR selling effort, yet your salesman tells his story to only one.

PRINTING can take your sales story to all of them. The use of folders and general direct mail that is properly written will PUT your message before all of them.

We are interested as printers in making possible greater sales efficiency in your organization. The use of our creative resources to your advantage is extended to the many business executives living in and about Birmingham.
