AMONG THE WOMEN

GOLF CHAMPION TELLS OF GAME

By DOROTHY E. WILLIAMS

By DOROTHY E. WILLIAMS

Although women can play as skillful golf as men, their game can never be as powerful. That is the opinion of Mrs. Stewart Haniey, of Bhoomdeld Hills, twice agolf champlon.

She not only is an entrant in the Woman's National tournament to be played the week of Sept. 30 at the Oakland Hills country club, but is chairman of the John the Woman's committee of the United States golf association. The superior strength of men is evident in the majority of athletics, Mrs. Hanley believes, but spower behind a more the way a skillful game," she said. Mrs. Hanley does not believe in women making a profession of athletics, Mrs. Hanley with women hand in the way a man has, but she can play a skillful game," she said. Mrs. Hanley does not believe in women making a profession of athletics, we correct the said of th
