PHILOSOPHER'S COLUMN
And if the time ever comes when any of those rebel leaders there of their position, they can come to the United States and go on a lecture tour.

Our extra piece of pie this week goes to the man who got the yard all cleaned up before his wife told him a dozen times to get it at it.

One of the bothers of moving so often is the trouble of returning all of the things one has borrowed.

—It may be tough to pay 50 cents a pound for beef steak, but it is usually tougher when you pay for a lecture tour.

Some folks make you feel at home and others make you wish you really were.

This Man Got Life and a Good Bowling Co.
"Have you ever been married?"
"Yes," answered the prisoner.

"To whom?"
"A woman."
"Of course it was a woman," stapped the judge, "did you ever hear of anyone marrying a man?"
"Yes, sir," said the risoner, brightly, "my sister did."

A Very Wise Man
A little boy from Canada who had never seen a negro, was riding in New York with his uncle when he spied a colored lady on the street.
"Why, why does that woman black her face?"
"She doesn't; that's her natural color."
"Is she black like that all over?"
"Why, yes," uncle replied.
"The boy looked up, beamingly at his uncle and said: "Ge-uncle, you know every thing don't you?"
