Fred W. Mallender, Cranbrook road: "The drought we have had this summer will, in my estimation, raise the price of foodstuffs at least 25 per cent. Not since 1894 have I seen the weather so continually hot and dry as during the past few weeks. In 1894 I remember that we had 93 days of unbroken drought. Farmers cannot raise food without rain."

port of the village health department. During the month, but 24 home calls were made and one hospital call, the report of Mrs. Olga Hennig, village nurse, shows. Ten contagious diseases were reported during the month, while two village children were sent to the University Hospital, Ann Arbor. Twelve persons were granted permits as restaurant workers.

The report of inspector, Ernest E. Morrow, shows 129 meat markets visited during July and six private calls made. Only 194 laboratory tests were made last month against 233 of the preceding month. According to Miss Clara Diekmann, technician, 93 of these were throat cultures, against 110 of June. Fifty milk tests were made and 36 water tests. The remainder were of a miscellaneous nature.

"Love" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, August 4.
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth; therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty" (John 5:17).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "He that touches the hem of Christ's robe and masters his mortal beliefs, animality, and hate, rejoices in the proof of healing,—in a sweet and certain sign that God is Love" (p. 569).
