WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
John Hanna, Forest avenue: "Times certainly change rapidly these days. When I look over the postoffice at Birmingham in 1899, look boxes used to rent for 15 cents a week. Now they run all the way from 75 cents up, and they are cheap at that, when you consider how everything else has gone up—even women's dresses. Speaking of dresses, though, this is good advertising on the part of the ladies—no modern advertising agency ever prepared better 'copy' than the modern dress-makers' ads for it will bring out of the ladies' cigarette cart, when you consider about much quicker that time when nearly all people, both men and women, will realize how foolish it is to smoke."

is open to all DeMolays and their friends.

EVERYBODY ASKED TO VISIT CAMP DENBY AUG. 14

Great Time Promised Parents And Friends Of Boys In C. M. T. Training Camps

IS NEAR BATTLE CREEK

Camp Edwin Denby, near Battle Creek, August 7.—(Special) Every citizen in Michigan living in both the upper and lower peninsula is invited to visit Camp Edwin Denby, the C. M. T. Camp at Camp Fort Brady on Visitors' Day, Wednesday, August 14.

This is the one day when C. M. T. C. trainees in both of Michigan's training camps will be anxious to greet their parents, relatives and friends. The young men from nearly every community in Michigan will have completed three weeks' training at Michigan's Day set aside by the war department for the sole purpose of giving the youngsters an opportunity to exhibit to their relatives and friends what the physical, mental and moral training of Michigan Reserve officers has been in the short time they have been in training.

In addition to citizens in every part of Michigan being invited, newspaper editors, reporters and printers and Reserve officers of the state are especially invited. Michigan went over the top in obtaining its C. M. T. C. quota, and it was largely due to the vast amount of publicity given by newspapers all over the state, and the energetic efforts of Michigan Reserve officers that this state gained its quota for the third successive year.

Everyone who attends either of Michigan's two training camps will be received not only by the trainees, but by the officers in charge of the camps. Trainees will be permitted to take their relatives and friends to "chow" on Visitors' Day, so that every visitor in camp will get a taste of the army food—possibly baked pork and beans. No one is supposed to get hungry and the casual visitor will be as welcome in the mess hall as though he was related to every trainee in camp.

A special program of activities is being prepared for the entertainment of the visitors on Visitors' Day. In the forenoon there will be a special military program including a review, and in the afternoon many championship athletic events will be staged, such as baseball games, track events of all kinds, soccer, handball, tennis and basket ball.

There will be a number of distinguished present at each camp on Visitors' Day, and many county chairmen and county committee-men and chairs of enrolling students in the 83 counties, and physicians and surgeons who made the physical examination of the students free of charge will be present to witness the training program.

Phelps Newberry, civilian aide to Secretary of War James W. Good, announces the Michigan Patriotic Fund will again furnish every Michigan trainee, no matter what camp he serves in a copy of the C. M. T. C. History for 1929, free of charge. The history will be prepared, printed and sent out to every Michigan young man who spends 30 days in a training camp. In addition to the two Michigan camps, Camp Edwin Denby and Fort Brady, Michigan young men are being trained at Camp McCoy, near Sparta, Wis., Fort Sheridan, near Chicago, and Fort Snelling, near St. Paul, Minn. This is the first year since the beginning of the World war that Michigan young men have been trained at Fort Snelling. Many Michigan officers during the World war received their training at one of the Officers' Training Camps at Fort Snelling in 1917.

Everybody, men, women and children will be welcome on Visitors' Day at Camp Edwin Denby and Fort Brady, on Wednesday, August 14.

WOMAN SKIPPER.

Elizabeth Hovey, 18 year old daughter of Chandler Hovey, has the distinction of being the first woman in American yachting history to be selected as one of the skipper to represent the United States in International racing competition. The selection has confounded the old traditions of the sea, whereby a skipper must be a robust, swash-buckling old salt, turning his orders about the roiling of the waves. BIRMINGHAM

Today

The sinuous trail of the "rum-runners" who flood the country with contraband liquor is covered for the scrutiny of the world's millions in "Blockade" It is a thrilling photodrama starring Anna Q. Nilsson in the featured role. It depicts with fidelity the unending warfare between the government forces, charged with suppressing the illicit liquor industry, and the outlaws who dare death to heap up the tremendous gains that the business brings.

Friday and Saturday
Rising to a tremendous climax that will make most fans gasp, "The Flying Fool," an all-talking picture starring William Hovak, is said to be one of the most thrilling and entertaining pictures produced this season.

Although the story has an aviation background and though it reaches a great dramatic crescendo with a scene in the air it is not entirely an air story. It is a human drama, which combines pathos and comedy, played by a cast of capable actors and moulded into fine entertainment.

Sunday and Monday
John Gilbert and Greta Garbo, whose disarming naturalness in the more romantic interludes of "Flesh and the Devil" and "Love" caused a deal of speculation as to whether or not they took tea together as pleasantly when not chaperoned by the camera, are the costars of "A Woman of Affairs." It is a picture with sound synchronization and with a surrounding sound program. In this picture Miss Garbo has the role of a vivacious society girl, different from her previous screen interpretations. The advance word also is that she has altered her style in clothes for this picture. It is said, however, that the fashion in Garbo's tight, close-fitting (not to mention long) silhouettes still follows the same silhouette.

Tuesday
Bringing to its direction a surety of touch and a thoroughness that comes only from the production of outstanding photographs of similar atmosphere, Director George Melford has made of "Love in the Desert," a faithful and vivid depiction of the vivid country of the Arabs in northern Africa. Against that background, with its waving palms, limitless stretches of white desert, wide oases and huddled native towns, is portrayed a dramatic story of the strife between tribes of rival sheikhs over the introduction of a great irrigation project into their territory, with a dash of romance threaded through the narrative to serve as the motivation of most of the thrilling action. Olive Borden, Noah Berry and Hugh Trevor are seen in the leading roles.

Wednesday and Thursday
Tropic scenes of wonderful beauty, thrills such as a battle under water with a deep sea shark, and other vivid details of life in the tropics, embellish the romantic love story in "The Pagan." Ramon Novarro's latest picture. As a sound synchronized film with singing sequences, it introduces Novarro's rich tenor voice to the motion picture public. He gives several renditions of "The Pagan Love Song," the theme song of the production.

Miss Marilyn Miller, famed dancer and musical comedy star, has a contract to appear in three motion pictures, for which it is said she will receive $400,000.

Mrs. Mabel Reinecke, after serving seven years as collector of internal revenue for the Chicago district, has joined the staff of the Chicago Evening American as a writer on taxation and economics.

Chick Gum, a Chinese cook of New York, nearly caused a riot of his yells and antics when he accidentally flipped a hot pancake inside his loose-fitting shirt.

SUSPECT FREED WITH LIGHT FINE

Jack Madison, 42, of 3142 East Woodward avenue, Detroit, who was held for investigation by Detroit police, Tuesday paid a fine of $30 in Justice Floyd S. Buel's court on a disorderly charge. He was given an alternative of 20 days.

Madison was arrested Monday by Bloomfield Hills police as he travelled north on the wrong side of Woodward avenue in a car driven by Dan Vasele, of 2739 Franklin street, Detroit. Vasele was fined $50 with an alternative of 30 days. A 32 calibre automatic revolver was found in the car, police reported. At the time of his arrest by Patrolman L. A. Martin, Madison's description was believed to tally with that of a man being sought by Detroit police.
