

THE FAITHFUL IS EVER AT ITS DUTY IN LIGHTING THE WORLD SOMEWHERE. FROM THE WORDS OF THE BIBLE: "FOR AS THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD, GOD'S LOVE IS LIKE THE SUN TO THOSE WHO BASK WITHIN ITS BEAMS."

NEW GOLF PRO CLUB SELECTS AL WATROUS

Whether the "town that time forgot" will come from its peaceful seclusion and obscurity through the medium of incorporation will not be determined until early in January when residents of the Village of Franklin will meet in the office of George Wellington Smith to hear a report on the progress of the incorporation...

INTEREST IN PLEASANT RIDGE CASE

At a late hour last evening word reached "The Eccentric" office of the sale, a month ago, of the old car barn property formerly owned by the D. U. R. at north Woodward and Harmon avenues, Birmingham.

PROTEST AREAS BROUGHT BEFORE VILLAGE LEADERS

Commissioner Lee A. White, of the Eastern Michigan Railways and the Eastern Michigan Motorbuses will be appearing before the Village Commission Monday night for an explanation and discussion of the recent change in fares obtained by the companies through the Michigan Public Utilities Commission.

VILLAGE GIRL IS HEROINE IN WALKING SEIGE

Miss Marguerite V. Dutton, formerly of Birmingham, and the sister of Mrs. Russell McBride, played a prominent part in the evacuation of American women and children from Nanking, where she was held for several months as a result of the accident.

MISS VIOLA HAMMOND INJURED AT HUNT CLUB

Miss Viola Hammond, 22, prominent in Hills and Detroit societies, was injured at a driving horse woman, is at home today recovering from injuries incurred Saturday afternoon at the Open Hunt club when she was kicked by a colt she was leading.

BOY HERO GETS SAFETY AWARD

Roy Clark, 12, Hill School Pupil, Saves Life Of 2-Year-Old Child

MEMBERS REPORT ALMOST $1,200 RECEIVED IN SALE OF NEWSPAPERS

With nearly $1,200 of the Christmas charity funds already raised through the newspaper sale last Saturday, members of the Birmingham Metropolitan club today are completing plans for their second benefit event of the season, the dance to be held at 9 p. m. tomorrow evening at the Odd Fellows temple.

COUNT LECTURES AT LIONS CLUB

Count Alfred Von Niewchowski, of Detroit, author of "The Cruise of the Kronos," will give a thrilling narrative of the World War on the seas, was the speaker at the annual Christmas luncheon given at the Lions club.

VILLAGERS AND THE WANDERER

Perhaps the most unusual donation in the amount involved in the Birmingham Metropolitan club's village club sale was a half pint fruit jar filled with pennies.

CO-OPERATION ASKED FOR NEW DIRECTORY

The 1930 Directory and Blue Book will be published again this year by the Birmingham Metropolitan club. The directory is a co-operative project of the club and the city.

OUR GOODFELLOW CLUB STILL WANTS YOUR HELP

The Eccentric Goodfellow Club, which is co-operating with the Community House and the Metropolitan club in providing candy and Christmas joy for the poor little kiddies on Christmas morning, is meeting with the approval of a few citizens of Birmingham.

CONCERNING BIRMINGHAM

A review of the Village Ordinance discloses a result of so many years ago the commission wrestled with such problems as those concerning the keeping of bees with the prohibition of running a motor vehicle on a public street.

AD CONTEST WINNERS GET PRIZES

Winners of the Prize Contest which was run in The Birmingham Eccentric last week are as follows: Roy Clark, 12, Hill School Pupil, Saves Life Of 2-Year-Old Child.

ADVERTISING MANAGER OF BIRMINGHAM, WAS PRESENT AT MEETING AND OUTLINED THE ADVANTAGES OF VILLAGE INCORPORATION.

The increase of population in the past few years and the advent of wide, well-paved roads near the village has been responsible for the movement for incorporation of a community with such natural advantages.

INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE COMPOSED OF MR. SMITH, CHARLES A. BINGHAM, SECRETARY, DR. CLAYTON H. GRACEY, WALTER HAYMOND AND W. B. CRIM.

Whether the "town that time forgot" will come from its peaceful seclusion and obscurity through the medium of incorporation will not be determined until early in January when residents of the Village of Franklin will meet in the office of George Wellington Smith to hear a report on the progress of the incorporation.

SET FOR JAN. 7

Belief that the controversy between certain members of the Oakland County Prosecutor's office and Police Chief James W. Parry, village manager, will be settled on Monday.

TAXI? ASK THE VILLAGERS

Birmingham faces a taxi-cab problem. Not, however, the sort of a taxi-cab problem that has troubled other cities where policemen are sent out to measure the square feet occupied by a cab.

HEALTH CLUB MEETS

The Health Club of the Fourth and Fifth grades of the Hill School held an open meeting yesterday afternoon, to which the mothers, Mrs. Wynn B. Easterday, principal, and Miss Christensen were invited.

CLERGYMEN TO VISIT

Dean David W. Thornberry and the Rev. Frank F. Kraft, former pastors of St. James' Episcopal church here, and now of Wyoming, will visit Birmingham with relatives here in Birmingham, on their return from the Philadelphia conference.

OUR GOODFELLOW CLUB STILL WANTS YOUR HELP

The Eccentric Goodfellow Club, which is co-operating with the Community House and the Metropolitan club in providing candy and Christmas joy for the poor little kiddies on Christmas morning, is meeting with the approval of a few citizens of Birmingham.

MEMBERS REPORT ALMOST $1,200 RECEIVED IN SALE OF NEWSPAPERS

With nearly $1,200 of the Christmas charity funds already raised through the newspaper sale last Saturday, members of the Birmingham Metropolitan club today are completing plans for their second benefit event of the season, the dance to be held at 9 p. m. tomorrow evening at the Odd Fellows temple.

COUNT LECTURES AT LIONS CLUB

Count Alfred Von Niewchowski, of Detroit, author of "The Cruise of the Kronos," will give a thrilling narrative of the World War on the seas, was the speaker at the annual Christmas luncheon given at the Lions club.

VILLAGERS AND THE WANDERER

Perhaps the most unusual donation in the amount involved in the Birmingham Metropolitan club's village club sale was a half pint fruit jar filled with pennies.

CO-OPERATION ASKED FOR NEW DIRECTORY

The 1930 Directory and Blue Book will be published again this year by the Birmingham Metropolitan club. The directory is a co-operative project of the club and the city.

OUR GOODFELLOW CLUB STILL WANTS YOUR HELP

The Eccentric Goodfellow Club, which is co-operating with the Community House and the Metropolitan club in providing candy and Christmas joy for the poor little kiddies on Christmas morning, is meeting with the approval of a few citizens of Birmingham.

CONCERNING BIRMINGHAM

A review of the Village Ordinance discloses a result of so many years ago the commission wrestled with such problems as those concerning the keeping of bees with the prohibition of running a motor vehicle on a public street.

AD CONTEST WINNERS GET PRIZES

Winners of the Prize Contest which was run in The Birmingham Eccentric last week are as follows: Roy Clark, 12, Hill School Pupil, Saves Life Of 2-Year-Old Child.

ADVERTISING MANAGER OF BIRMINGHAM, WAS PRESENT AT MEETING AND OUTLINED THE ADVANTAGES OF VILLAGE INCORPORATION.

The increase of population in the past few years and the advent of wide, well-paved roads near the village has been responsible for the movement for incorporation of a community with such natural advantages.

INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE COMPOSED OF MR. SMITH, CHARLES A. BINGHAM, SECRETARY, DR. CLAYTON H. GRACEY, WALTER HAYMOND AND W. B. CRIM.

Whether the "town that time forgot" will come from its peaceful seclusion and obscurity through the medium of incorporation will not be determined until early in January when residents of the Village of Franklin will meet in the office of George Wellington Smith to hear a report on the progress of the incorporation.

SET FOR JAN. 7

Belief that the controversy between certain members of the Oakland County Prosecutor's office and Police Chief James W. Parry, village manager, will be settled on Monday.

TAXI? ASK THE VILLAGERS

Birmingham faces a taxi-cab problem. Not, however, the sort of a taxi-cab problem that has troubled other cities where policemen are sent out to measure the square feet occupied by a cab.

HEALTH CLUB MEETS

The Health Club of the Fourth and Fifth grades of the Hill School held an open meeting yesterday afternoon, to which the mothers, Mrs. Wynn B. Easterday, principal, and Miss Christensen were invited.

CLERGYMEN TO VISIT

Dean David W. Thornberry and the Rev. Frank F. Kraft, former pastors of St. James' Episcopal church here, and now of Wyoming, will visit Birmingham with relatives here in Birmingham, on their return from the Philadelphia conference.

OUR GOODFELLOW CLUB STILL WANTS YOUR HELP

The Eccentric Goodfellow Club, which is co-operating with the Community House and the Metropolitan club in providing candy and Christmas joy for the poor little kiddies on Christmas morning, is meeting with the approval of a few citizens of Birmingham.

ADVERTISING MANAGER OF BIRMINGHAM, WAS PRESENT AT MEETING AND OUTLINED THE ADVANTAGES OF VILLAGE INCORPORATION.

The increase of population in the past few years and the advent of wide, well-paved roads near the village has been responsible for the movement for incorporation of a community with such natural advantages.

INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE COMPOSED OF MR. SMITH, CHARLES A. BINGHAM, SECRETARY, DR. CLAYTON H. GRACEY, WALTER HAYMOND AND W. B. CRIM.

Whether the "town that time forgot" will come from its peaceful seclusion and obscurity through the medium of incorporation will not be determined until early in January when residents of the Village of Franklin will meet in the office of George Wellington Smith to hear a report on the progress of the incorporation.

SET FOR JAN. 7

Belief that the controversy between certain members of the Oakland County Prosecutor's office and Police Chief James W. Parry, village manager, will be settled on Monday.

TAXI? ASK THE VILLAGERS

Birmingham faces a taxi-cab problem. Not, however, the sort of a taxi-cab problem that has troubled other cities where policemen are sent out to measure the square feet occupied by a cab.

HEALTH CLUB MEETS

The Health Club of the Fourth and Fifth grades of the Hill School held an open meeting yesterday afternoon, to which the mothers, Mrs. Wynn B. Easterday, principal, and Miss Christensen were invited.

CLERGYMEN TO VISIT

Dean David W. Thornberry and the Rev. Frank F. Kraft, former pastors of St. James' Episcopal church here, and now of Wyoming, will visit Birmingham with relatives here in Birmingham, on their return from the Philadelphia conference.

OUR GOODFELLOW CLUB STILL WANTS YOUR HELP

The Eccentric Goodfellow Club, which is co-operating with the Community House and the Metropolitan club in providing candy and Christmas joy for the poor little kiddies on Christmas morning, is meeting with the approval of a few citizens of Birmingham.

ADVERTISING MANAGER OF BIRMINGHAM, WAS PRESENT AT MEETING AND OUTLINED THE ADVANTAGES OF VILLAGE INCORPORATION.

The increase of population in the past few years and the advent of wide, well-paved roads near the village has been responsible for the movement for incorporation of a community with such natural advantages.

INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE COMPOSED OF MR. SMITH, CHARLES A. BINGHAM, SECRETARY, DR. CLAYTON H. GRACEY, WALTER HAYMOND AND W. B. CRIM.

Whether the "town that time forgot" will come from its peaceful seclusion and obscurity through the medium of incorporation will not be determined until early in January when residents of the Village of Franklin will meet in the office of George Wellington Smith to hear a report on the progress of the incorporation.

SET FOR JAN. 7

Belief that the controversy between certain members of the Oakland County Prosecutor's office and Police Chief James W. Parry, village manager, will be settled on Monday.

TAXI? ASK THE VILLAGERS

Birmingham faces a taxi-cab problem. Not, however, the sort of a taxi-cab problem that has troubled other cities where policemen are sent out to measure the square feet occupied by a cab.

HEALTH CLUB MEETS

The Health Club of the Fourth and Fifth grades of the Hill School held an open meeting yesterday afternoon, to which the mothers, Mrs. Wynn B. Easterday, principal, and Miss Christensen were invited.

CLERGYMEN TO VISIT

Dean David W. Thornberry and the Rev. Frank F. Kraft, former pastors of St. James' Episcopal church here, and now of Wyoming, will visit Birmingham with relatives here in Birmingham, on their return from the Philadelphia conference.

OUR GOODFELLOW CLUB STILL WANTS YOUR HELP

The Eccentric Goodfellow Club, which is co-operating with the Community House and the Metropolitan club in providing candy and Christmas joy for the poor little kiddies on Christmas morning, is meeting with the approval of a few citizens of Birmingham.