Village of Birmingham REGISTRATION NOTICE

for NEW Village Precincts

If you have not registered at the Village offices since June 1st, 1928 you are not a qualified voter and MUST register on or before March 2nd, 1929 to enable you to vote at coming MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

EXPLANATION OF MAP

The above map shows the relocation of election precincts for the village of Birmingham. By order of the village commission on April 23rd, 1928, the former three precincts were revised to five precincts to conform with the township of Bloomfield precincts. With this change has come a change of boundaries which are explained as follows:

Bounded on the north by village limits, on the east by Woodward, on the south by Maple avenue, on the west by Woodward willage limits.

Precinct Three

Precinct Four

All Voters Must Register

With the change of voting precincts described above it is necessary that all voters who have not registered at the village offices since June 1st, 1928, register before March 2nd, 1929. Those not doing so will not be qualified to vote at the coming MUNICIPAL election.

Last Day for Registration is

SATURDAY, MARCH 2nd, 1929
