We years, and regree if anything has been left undone, that might have been accomplished through greater effort on my part. I recall also, with pleasure, the service rendered as a member of the preceding six years. Retiring from office will in no way lessen my interest in the wolfare of the community. There are many energiet and enthusiastic citizens, well qualified to hand, who are well qualified to hand it would be many complicated problems that confront such a rapidly growing community.
