HEART VICTIM RITES HELD

Joshua S. Gibbons Dies Suddenly; Survived By Family

Stricken while unloading coal from a truck, Joshua S. Gibbons, 42 years old, of 303 Frank street died of apoplexy Friday afternoon. He was working at the home of Fred Wilson, of 718 Stanley avenue.

Mr. Gibbons, who for 16 years has been a resident of Birmingham, was buried Monday at 2:30 p. m. in Roseland Park cemetery with Rev. Robert W. Atkins, pastor of the First Methodist Church officiating.

He came here from Cass City, Mich., and has been engaged in carpentry.

Mrs. Charity Gibbons Besides his widow, he is survived by eight children: Mrs. Clarence Heth, Mrs. Ray Conley, Mrs. Fred Hopson, Mrs. Ethel Caffield, Wesley Gibbons, Herbert Gibbons and Ivan Gibbons, all of Birmingham; Mrs. Fred Smith, of Saginaw; his mother, Mrs. John Wedge, of Port Huron, and three brothers in Flint and two in Port Huron.

Makes Good Check
Morris B. Draper, Jr., of Birmingham, pleading guilty to a charge of passing a worthless check, Tuesday settled the check and costs of $5 in Justice Malcolm Hunt's court. The complaint was filed by Brewster Shaw, of the Shaw Brothers Motor company, on a check for $15 made out to him.

This church has a wealth of beautiful equipment combined with a warm spirit of hospitality, and invites all people who will to come and freely share in these things. We especially invite you to the following services.
Sunday School, 10:00 a. m.
We are using the departmentalized, graded system of instruction with a separate class room and teacher for every age.
Morning Worship, 11:00 a. m.
Please note that our church service begins promptly at 11 instead of 11:15 o'clock. At this service the pastor will give a challenging sermon on the question,

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
Mrs. H. J. Stringham, of Ridgeville avenue: "From our work with night classes in elementary English at the Community House we are convinced that there are practically no persons in the village who are not able to speak English."

"Shall We Surrender?" There will also be a story-sermon for the children.

Young People's Union, 6:30 p. m. Here young people meet young people and have a good time in worth-while discussion of interesting problems. Attendance last Sunday was 45. Join the crowd! Evening Worship, 7:30 p. m.

The Boy Scouts of Birmingham will be our special guests at this service. Fathers and sons are also invited. Communion will be served. Mr. Woodward will give an interesting sermon on "The Secret of Lincoln's Greatness." Patriotic singing and special music appropriate to the occasion will be provided. The music is being provided by the choir. Special Day of Prayer, Wed. at 2 & 6:30 p. m.
