Society Attends Wedding Of Lydia Mendelsohn and C. H. Bush

Members of Birmingham and Hills society witnessed the wedding last Saturday of Miss Lydia Mendelsohn, daughter of Christian Henry Bush. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mendelsohn of east Detroit avenue, Detroit. Mr. Bush is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Bush, also of Detroit.

The bride was charmingly gowned in ivory satin, featuring a bodice of rose points lace that fell in a cape in the back. Her veil was of tulle, bound with rare rose point lace, and the carried a bouquet of white orchids and valley lilies.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Arthur Morley Kugeman, a sister of the groom, as matron of honor.

EUROPE CALLS HILLS FOLK

Many From Village Leave For Extensive Trips Abroad

European travel is now claiming the interest of the Hills set. On Saturday, Mrs. Francis Palms, of Eastway Farms, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Martha Palms, one of this fall's debutantes who has been much feted by society this season, and her three sons, John, James and Jerome, sailed from New York City on the Conte Grande. They plan to spend the winter on the Italian Riviera returning here sometime in May.

GROUP MAY STUDY HOUSE EXPANSION

Birmingham's Community House board is today contemplating the organization of a board for the study and expansion of Community House work.

There are many experienced social workers in Birmingham whose services would be invaluable to the Community House, Mrs. Shain said. It is these trained workers with a knowledge of social adjustment, nursery schools, baby clinics and such projects that the Community House needs, she pointed out.
