AN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

NO organization can continue to live without the general approval of the buyers in a community. Without this approval a business must die early in its career. It must in this day and age offer the maximum in service, consideration to the public's needs, honesty in every transaction and alertness to the pulse of buyers' habits.

We have attempted in these past six years to merit the approval of Birmingham's patronage. We have grown and trust that we shall continue to grow.

We are truly grateful for your patronage during these years, and in announcing this sale, we hope that you will interpret our offerings of specially priced merchandise as an acknowledgement of this appreciation.
