BIRMINGHAM COUPLE WED

Miss Katherine Ferguson Becomes Bride Of Horace P. Shaw

A wedding of charming simplicity was solemnized at half after three o'clock yesterday when Miss Katherine Ferguson, daughter of Mr. George E. Ferguson, of Puritan road, became the bride of Horace P. Shaw, son of Mrs. John T. Shaw, of the Hills.

Nearly 100 guests witnessed the ceremony which took place in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Arthur J. Halgren, of Puritan road. The nuptial service was read by Rev. William Aulenbach, assistant rector of Christ Church, Cranbrook.

The house was colorfully decorated with garden flowers the bridal party standing before an improvised altar of mid-summer blossoms.

Miss Ferguson's ivory satin gown which she chose for the occasion strikingly enhanced her brunette loveliness. It was combined with lace, the long tight bodice being attached with pearl-edge pleats to the skirt which featured an uneven hemline. Lace was used for the long, tight sleeves and formed a panel in the front of the skirt terminating in a Y-shaped front. The bride's veil was of net falling from a cap and edged with rose point lace. Her slippers were of egg shell color. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias, white roses and valley-hills.

Miss Isabelle Hubbard, of Battle Creek, who acted as maid of honor, was charmingly gowned in a lace frock of French blue. It was a sleeveless model featuring a wide cape and an uneven hemline. A large horseshair hat trimmed in blue velvet of a matching shade and eggshell kid slippers completed the ensemble. Johanna Hill roses formed her arm bouquet. John T. Shaw attended the groom as best man.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Shaw have left on a motor trip through the east. They will return to the village late in August to reside on Harmon avenue.
