TO START CIVIC CENTER LAWSUIT

Village Seeks Four Parcels Of Land To Complete Project

Examination of the jury in Justice F. S. Buck's court in the case of condemnation proceedings instituted by the village to acquire four parcels of land in the center block of the civic center will begin here tomorrow morning. Clara H. Ogden, village attorney, will represent Birmingham. John J. Gaffill, of Southfield avenue, will defend the property owned by Mr. and Mrs. John E. Laidlaw, and William Hunt. Burt McHenry appeared in his own behalf.

A jury was selected last Saturday, composed of Lester J. Slusser, Frank Schlaack, W. H. Miller, Raymond Peck, Robert C. Mouthrough, Charles C. Hallock, Charles Boughner, Ellsworth Flumsted, Charles McCarthy, Louis Randall, Charles G. Park, Louis Hascall.

Birmingham voters, last spring voted against a bond issue to cover the cost of these four parcels of land. The present action, however, is being projected by the commission, it is understood, so that the property may be acquired before land values take another rise.

According to attorney Ogden, the village will go right ahead tomorrow, although it may not be completed in full until village manager James W. Parry returns from a brief vacation next Tuesday.

Troy School Area Would Annex to B'ham District

Members of the Birmingham board of education and of the Troy township board will convene Aug. 1 to consider the annexation of approximately 160 acres of the Troy school area to the Birmingham district. The meeting follows a petition of lot owners in the territory.

The area under consideration includes a section of land within the village limits but not in the Birmingham school district and the subdivision outside the village. The valuation of the territory is estimated at $250,000. There are now two houses in the area but no children in the district, it is reported.

In case of annexation the Birmingham school district would share in the bonded indebtedness of the Troy district. The indebtedness is estimated at $4,000. The area would mean increased revenue, however, for the Birmingham district, officials say.

ROBERT HAGAN IS IN CRITICAL CONDITION

The condition of Robert Hogan, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hogan, of Merrill street, who sustained a fractured skull when he crashed into the side of a car on west Maple avenue, July 4, remains critical, attaches at the St. Joseph's Mercy hospital report today.

The car was driven by Harry H. Wilbur, of 13581 Briggs street, Detroit. Police reports failed to reveal the seriousness of the child's injuries at the time of the accident.

3 NEW OFFICERS ADDED BY POLICE

Birmingham's police department is increased today by three new patrolmen as the appointments made recently by Chief James Anderson. Sixteen men are now included on the force.

The new officers assumed their duties Monday. They are: Otto Wilson, 38, of 121 Kentucky road, Pontiac, brother of Charles Wilson, assisting prosecuting attorney of Oakland County; Henry Timm, 31, of 200 Merrill street, Birmingham; and Robert Dunn, 33, of 104 Hendrix street, Birmingham. Wilson plans to move to the village. He was formerly employed by the Detroit Police Department in Detroit, while Timm and Dunn were employed by the Detroit Union Railways. All three men are married.

George Townsend, for three years a patrolman in the Birmingham department, resigned Friday to go into business in the village.

TO CUT WEEDS IN VILLAGE AT ONCE

Manager Says Mowers Will Prevent Damage To Lawns This Year

Relief to taxpayers whose lawns and gardens are being threatened by nearby weeds is promised all village during the next three weeks, manager James W. Parry told the village commission Monday night. Many complaints have been received at the municipal offices.

“We are cutting weeds along the right of way on streets this week,” stated manager Parry. “We intend to keep right on and remove all weeds from vacant property. I do not believe, however, that many of the weeds will take seed before we get to them, so that little damage by spreading will be done this year.”

Manager Parry stated that the village ordinance prevents cutting weeds on private property before July 1 of each year.

BOO! BOO! SEZ LION TO LION, SEZ THEY—

A humorous program featured the luncheon meeting yesterday of the Lions club at the First Baptist Church. Past president, B. J. Melrow opened the meeting with the reading of the ideals of Lionism. His reading was greeted with boos and Dr. John Hassberger took the floor protesting against another reading of the ideals, which members claim have been read countless times.

A number of Lions left the meeting, as pandemonium broke loose. Eventually, Dr. Hassberger was appointed by Mr. Melrow as a committee to read the ideals and once again the Lion code was read.

James C. Corwin, who died at Hull, Eng., at the age of 92, had 40 beds in his large home and slept in a different one each night.

To Apply Tarvia In Village Streets

Application of tarvia to the surfaces of several gravel streets in southern Birmingham is scheduled, as the result of a resolution passed by the village commission Monday night. The streets involved are Ruffner, between Adams and Torrey; Humphrey and Bannville between Woodward and Torrey, and a small portion on Adams avenue.

The total cost of the project amounts to $3,799.89; the abutting property must pay $2,975.53, or 78.4 per cent. The village at large to pay $824.36, or 21.6 per cent. The per front foot cost to the property owners amounts to 45 cents, or about nine cents per foot per year of the assessment period.

The project also includes the installation of between 12 and 15 water services to vacant lots. A special resolution was passed by the commission allowing existing iron water services to remain until worn out, later to be replaced with lead services. A public meeting on this project will be held July 29.
