In Detroit Theaters

"AFTER DARK" BEGINS

"EIGHTH WALK" IN DETROIT That famous and riotous old thriller, "After Dark," "Neighborhood Maid, Fire, Nor Widow," begins the eighth week of its momentous engagement at the Detroit Civic Theatre Monday night, continuing its spectacular production just as it was produced by William A. Brady in California in 1888. Thanks to Mr. Brady, the Civic Theatre was able to secure the play while it is still being done most successfully in Hoboken by Christopher Morley and his associates, after more than 20 weeks of packed houses. "After Dark" by Dion Boucicault, is a contemporary of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and combines in its many amusing scenes the thrilling rescue of hero and heroine from untold dangers, the exciting defeat of the villain, the Germania Music Hall and gambling den with its specialty acts and songs and dances, typical of the '60's, and a perfect torrent of laughter from beginning to end. The famous Hudson river scene, the railroad train, the great prize-fight scene, with two real local fighters taking the active roles, are big features of the production. Miriam Sears, Marie Adels, George Blackwood, Craig Ward, and Walter Sherwin have prominent parts. Sherwin playing the role of Old Tom, created in this country by William A. Brady himself.

"A CONNECTICUT YANKEE" COMING TO CASS THEATRE

The spirit of Mark Twain, the famous humorist, who afforded so much good humor and happiness to another generation of Americans, has been brought up to the minute by Fields, Rodgers and Hart in their adaptation and musical comedy version of "A Connecticut Yankee," which comes to the Cass Theatre, Detroit next Monday night.

"A CONNECTICUT YANKEE" COMING TO CASS THEATRE

Those who have read the Twain book, with its delightful and satirical account of the visit of a modern American to the Court of King Arthur in the sixth century, will find no part of the old story changed so far as the plot is concerned. The atmosphere and lines have been given a 1929 touch.

This attraction played at the Vanderbilt Theatre, New York, for one solid year; three months in Boston; three months in Philadelphia and seventeen weeks in Chicago. A splendid company will be seen here, together with the elaborate scenic equipment, an augmented orchestra, and a large singing and dancing chorus famed for its attractive orchestra appearance.

Heading the cast is Richard
