It's Picture Time

Frames Have It

Beauty Is Yours!

The picture of health—that's what the children are these summer days, skin a healthy tan, eyes bright with thoughts of vacation fun—and that's just the time to have their portraits made. Mr. Arnold, from Arnold's Studio in the Theater Building, makes reproductions that come mighty close to real life. Phone him right now and arrange for an appointment for the kiddies for some morning next week.

C. L. Misener's picture framing department in the basement of the Field Building is so filled with beautiful frames that one hardly knows which is the loveliest. But I'd choose one exquisite one that I saw this week, a polychrome swing frame, looking like a great old antique that may have decorated the hall of Versailles. He can provide a frame for any size picture. Just drop in and see em for yourself.

This week when I visited the Harper Method Shop in the Quarten Building the operators were giving facials. And Oh! what those experts can do to a girl's beauty. Ponce de Leon wouldn't have searched in vain for the fountain of youth back in 1512 if he had had the Harper Method Shop at his service. It's just assurance of always looking one's best if you place your beauty in the hands of the Harper Method operators.

Cool and Refreshing

Men are lucky at least those who wear Walkover shoes from Young's Shoe Store on East Maple Ave. are... so fundamentally correct and smart, and always in style. Right now, Mr. Young has some summer oxfords in the Walkover class that would make any woman jealous of masculine styles. Just see them, and you'll be stepping out in a pair. Im-

Speaking of cold drinks—and who isn't these warm days in July? Shain's, always with the right thing at the right time, have gallon Thermos jugs at a special price of $1.98. They're ideal if you're going on a picnic or summer outing, or just convenient to have 'round the

The hottest hour in the hottest day of the week—but you'll enjoy your meal at the Pure Food Restaurant on North Woodward, nevertheless. A refreshing breeze just came stealing in from somewhere, the food, marvelous delicacies for hot weather appetites, and you'll see dozens of happy, contented faces at the noon hour,

Seeing Is Believing

Just wend your steps in that direction when luncheon and dinner time comes 'round.

A Victor for Fun

This week we heard one of the Victor Portables at Grinnell on south Woodward—one of those we've been urging vacationers, picnickers, and "tourers" to invest in. If you just hear this Victor Portable once, you'll feel like slipping on knickers, packing tennis racket and fish rods, and stealing away to some pretty little cottage on the side of a lake, playing your portable any time you want to, all the latest music, at your selection. S'great—we think so, too.

The New Brandes

"Out of the seven seas," is right, if you're referring to the Brandes radios on display at the Radio Centre on East Maple Avenue. The history of the Brandes goes way back to 1908 when the first set was used aboard ship to figure in many thrilling events of the history of the sea. And here's the thing about the Brandes—hunting with the dial every time you want a station is a thing of the past. You just adjust the Selector tuner once, and thereafter your favorite stations are instantly available. And the price of the Brandes!—only $125.00 minus tubes.

Lovely for Summer!

Fifty thousand Frenchmen can't be wrong, nor can the hundreds of Birmingham women be wrong in their choice of dresses. Beverly's, in the Walnut Bldg., have some of the most delightful summer frocks, so cool and fresh looking, the kind you'll want to be wearing for another six weeks. They're selling at big reductions now, too. Here's a hint—we saw some chiffon ensembles as low as $29.50, unique, modernistic designs on that dainty thin chiffon. What could be lovelier!

HARNES, BREAK OUTLAW HORSE

Part of Farmers' Day Program To Be Held At Lansing August 2

East Lansing, July 17.—The training of an outlaw horse whose owners were unable to work him and had decided to sell the animal of Summer Farmers' Day at Michigan State College, at 10:30 A. M. Friday, August 2.

The horse was bought by a Clinton county man for 152 dollars, but, as this owner was unable to handle him, he offered the horse to a neighbor for 70 dollars if the neighbor could break the animal. The neighbor, Frank Pope, St. Johns, found that the horse had developed an outlaw temperament and that any attempt to work the horse would result in the injury of his driver. Mr. Pope decided to sell him to the glue factory.

to train the horses is based on the experiences which they have had at 44 horse-breaking demonstrations this year. At each of these meetings, the meanest horse which could be found was broken to harness.

Inspection of experimental work and demonstrations are scheduled for the forenoon of Farmers' Day, and the signing program will be held in the afternoon. A banquet for women and one for dairymen will conclude the day's events.

New Optometrist Opens Office Here

Offices devoted exclusively to the practice of optometry are to be opened here about July 22 by Dr. J. H. Stover, optometrist, who comes to Birmingham from Jonia where he has been engaged in the profession for the past eight years. He has the highest business and professional standing in the profession, according to competent advice.

Dr. Stover started his practice in Jonia in 1921 following his graduation from the Northern Illinois College of Optometry where he received his degree, doctor that they can take this horse Farmers' Day and break him so that he can be driven on a wagon without injury to the driver or the trainer.

YOU doubtless have heard it—maybe you are one of those to repeat it: "All tires are about alike."
