

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

BY DOROTHY E. WILLIAMS.

PLANNING AFFAIRS FOR VISITOR

Sister of Mrs. Milton F. Coulson Guest in Village

Many delightful affairs are being given in the village and the Hills for Mrs. Alfred Graham Williams, of Great Neck, N. J., who is the guest for her sister, Mrs. Milton F. Coulson, of Madison avenue.

Last Friday Mrs. F. J. Wurster, of Bloomfield village, honored Mrs. Williams at a dinner party at her home. Places were marked for 12 guests. Saturday evening the guest was entertained by Mrs. Francis Buttz, of Dorchester road, at a dinner party at the Detroit Boat club.

Mrs. Forsyth Hostess

Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth, of Wilmabton drive, was hostess on Sunday evening at a buffet supper at her home in compliment to Mrs. Williams. Yesterday was the occasion of Mrs. Coulson's luncheon at the Pine Lake Country club. Covers were laid for 75 guests.

Mrs. Williams will be the honor guest of Mr. and Mrs. John McNeil Burns Thursday evening at the dinner dance marking the opening of the Groesse Pointe Yacht club. On Saturday Mrs. Jack Burns will be hostess at a supper party at her cottage at Union Lake and on Sunday evening Mrs. Warren Peace will entertain a similar affair at her home in Buckingham road. Monday morning will be the occasion of a novel affair when Mrs. Fred Mixer will entertain for Mrs. Williams at a breakfast at the Birmingham Golf club.

CHILDREN GIVE STREET PLAY

A group of children living in the neighborhood of Knox and Poppleton streets gave a play Saturday evening on the lawn of the Stanley Ford residence, on Poppleton street. The performance was for the benefit of the Treas-Fress Fresh Air fund. Those who took part include: Oella Ford, Barbara Angus, Betty Brewster, Carol Giles, and Mary Weatherhead.

SHOW DRAWS HILLS ELITE

Hills Equestrians Attend Annual Show & Groesse Pointe Hunt Club

One of the colorful affairs of last week which proved most interesting to Hills society was the Groesse Pointe Hunt show last Friday and Saturday afternoon.

A large contingent of Hills equestrians attended, reserving boxes under the gay colored umbrellas. Society was there in masses and many persons entertained groups of their friends upon the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Slocum Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton M. Higbie were among those to entertain.

The list of horseholders showed many names prominent among Bloomfield Open Hunt club members, with the following persons holding reservations: Mrs. Sheple L. Dewey, Mrs. T. R. Donovan, Mrs. E. A. Skane, E. E. MacCrone, Bernard Hooper, Elliott Slocum Nichols, Carlton M. Higbie, George T. Hendrie, E. P. Hammond, Ralph Stoopsell, Williams P. Harris, Jr., Walter O. Briggs, William F. Connolly and James H. Flinn.

Those from the Open Hunt club to enter horses were: Mrs. T. R. Donovan, Mrs. Robert M. Allan, Walter O. Briggs, Bernard Hooper, William T. Hendrie, James Vernon, 3rd.

CLUBS

Commenting Sunday there will be rides at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club as follows: Sunday, August 4, on Thursday, 6, 8, 10, 12, and Tuesday and Saturday at 6:00 a. m.

The Bloomfield Open Hunt club will be the scene of a Fourth of July dinner dance. Special attractions are being planned with a display of fireworks.

A dinner dance will be held Fourth of July at the Oakland Hills Country club with the elaborate program planned during the day. At 2:30 p. m. special movies will be shown in the club, and at 7:30 p. m. a ventriloquist will entertain. Stunts and games at 4:30 p. m. will close the day for the children.

CHICAGO SCENE OF WEDDING

Marjorie Engstrom Becomes Bride Of Frederick P. Rainey

The Church of Atonement, Chicago, was the scene of the wedding at half after 12 o'clock Friday of Miss Marjorie Alina Engstrom, daughter of Mrs. A. G. Wilson, of Lincoln avenue, and Frederick P. Rainey, of Birmingham.

The bride was charmingly gowned in a dress of pink dotted net over pink chiffon fashioned with a long light bodice, long sleeves and fitted with an uneven hemline. She wore a horsehair hat and slippers of a matching pink and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and larkspur.

Mrs. Glenn O. Smith, of Moline, Ill., sister of the bride attended the nuptials as matron of honor. She wore a dress of orchid chiffon and a large horsehair hat of a matching shade. Her bouquet was of yellow tea roses.

F. T. Horton, of Peoria, Ill., attended the groom.

The nuptial service was read by Rev. Alfred Newberry.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Edgewater Beach hotel. The bride and groom have left on a two month motor trip. They plan to return to Birmingham early in September to make their home on Kenesaw drive.

Among the villagers to attend were: Mr. and Mrs. Lester J. Slaughter, Mrs. Harry Rainey, and their daughters, the Misses Margaret, Esther and Edith.

Other out-of-town guests included: Miss Sylvia Herrick of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. P. Z. Horton and Mr. and Mrs. P. Z. Horton of Peoria, Ill.; and Mrs. Glenn O. Smith of Moline, Ill.

Heaven help the man whose wife and children find it impossible to admire and respect him as such a man, though woe betide the fortune of a Midas, is vain unless in life's true perspective. A cigarette smoking habit is a thing of course, and is felt sorry for when a woman who refuses to smoke, whose laying low does more harm than smoking. False witness.
