

Respectfully dedicated to the memory of those stalwart men who in their wisdom and love of liberty gave all that this land might enjoy those fundamentals of life which in this era so well fortify our safety and peace of mind.

1776

And to those men who cherished the policies of this Country's founders—to those who would have a nation not divided within itself—to those who so sincerely believed all men to be created equal be the color black or white—and to the leader of the crusade, Abraham Lincoln.
