BY DOROTHY E. WILLIAMS.

FLOWER SHOW ENTRIES ASKED

Today is Final Time For Placing Names in Bloom-field Exhibit

Entries for the annual flower show of the Bloomfield Hills and District Horticultural society to be held Saturday at the Baldwin High School must be in today, according to Thomas Hind, of Judson street, Pontiac, chairman of the entries.

The show is expected to be of considerable interest to owners of large estates in the vicinity who plan to exhibit.

Miss Alice D. Voorheis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Voorheis, of Henrietta street, returned Friday from Northampton, Mass. where she was an instructor in the Smith College Co-Operative Nursery School.

Complimenting Miss Eleanor Rainey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rainey, of West Maple avenue, whose marriage to Milton Maltender will take place early in August, Mrs. Russell Loomis, of Flint, is entertaining next Thursday at a shower and afternoon bridge. The affair will take place at the home of Mrs. Loomis' mother-in-law, Mrs. M. E. Loomis, of Iroquois road, Pontiac.

COUPLE WED IN CHICAGO

Marjorie Engstrom To Become Bride Of Dr. Frederick P. Rainey June 29

One of the most important of the June weddings will take place June 29, when Miss Marjorie Alma Engstrom, daughter of Mrs. A. G. Wilson, of Chicago, will become the bride of Dr. Frederick P. Rainey, of Birmingham.

FOWLER-L'MOND WEDDING HELD

Village's Kin Marries In Detroit Church Before Many Friends

A wedding of interest to Birmingham was that of Miss Marguerite Fowler to Henry Le Mond, both of Detroit. Miss Fowler is the sister of George T. Fowler, of Bennaville avenue, and is well known in Birmingham.

The ceremony took place last Wednesday in the Bethel Evangelical Church, Detroit, before a large number of friends. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Fowler and by Miss Marguerite Spindler and Miss Edna Peck, as bridesmaids.

MANY AFFAIRS IN HONOR OF BRIDE ELECT

Miss Katherine Ferguson, daughter of Mrs. George R. Ferguson, of Puritan road, whose marriage to Horace P. Shaw, of the Hills will be an event of July 10, is being complimented at many charming affairs in Birmingham and Detroit.

The bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Arthur J. Halgren, is entertaining for her today at a luncheon bridge at her home on Puritan road. Places will be marked for 10 guests.

On Saturday Miss Henrietta Voorheis, of Pontiac, and Miss Florence Buttolph, of Detroit, are complimenting Miss Ferguson at a 20 guests Saturday at the Abington, Detroit.

A tea and linen shower given by Mrs. A. M. Bezold, at her home on Chicago boulevard will honor Miss Ferguson next Wednesday. Mrs. Howard McClure, of Detroit, will entertain for her on Thursday at a bridge luncheon and shower.

MEETING POSTPONED
Announcement is made of the postponement of the meeting of the Franklin Ladies Aid Society until 2 p. m. June 27. The meeting will take the form of a potluck picnic in the church lawn. Election of officers and the reading of annual reports will take place at that time.

RUTH HOLZNAGLE SPEAKS VOWS IN LOVELY HOME CEREMONY

Miss Ruth Evelyn Holznagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holznagle, of West Maple road, and Dr. Ralph E. Heth, of Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Heth, of Washington and Miami, spoke their marriage vows at a lovely ceremony at the thirty-o'clock Tuesday at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Foyd E. Loge, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiated at the nuptial service.

The bride chose for the occasion a stunning gown of ivory satin fashioned in princess style. The long train, which formed a yoke in front, fell from the shoulders in a long sweeping line to the floor. Her long veil of antique ivory tulle combined with rose point lace hung from a cap of tulle and rose point caught with orange blossoms. Slippers of ivory satin completed the bridal ensemble. She carried a shower bouquet of white spray orchids, white lilies and swanson.

Maid of Honor in Chiffon
Miss Elsie Rugh, of New York City, who attended the bride, wore a charming frock of pale pink chiffon which featured a deep cape collar of cream hand made lace and slippers of a matching

METHODIST CHURCH IS SCENE OF MORRISON-PECK NUPTIALS

At a pretty ceremony at three o'clock Tuesday in the Methodist Episcopal Church Miss Edna Frances Morrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Morrison, of Saxony road, East Detroit, became the bride of Victor Louis Peck, of Birmingham. Rev. W. M. Atkins read the marriage service.

The bride was charmingly gowned in a white sport ensemble, with white slippers and hat complementing the outfit. She carried an elaborate bouquet of white roses and valley lilies. Her maid of honor, Miss Marie Bunetta, of Detroit, wore a gown of orchid with a matching hat. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and lavender sweetpeas.

Two sorority sisters of the bride, the Misses Helen Webster, of Detroit, and Dorothy Peck, of Birmingham, and two fraternity brothers of the groom, John Bromley, of Pontiac, and Michael Palermo, of Cleveland, O., acted as ushers.

Mrs. Peck is a member of the Kappa Delta sorority, while the groom belongs to Sigma Nu fraternity. They are both graduates of Albion college, the bride receiving her degree this June. Mr. Peck received his degree last year and played a prominent part in glee club activities at Albion. He is now connected with The Charles R. Peck Sons.

A large contingent of college friends attended the wedding. Upon their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Peck plan to make their home in the village.

FRANCES VEIT TO ENTERTAIN

Miss Frances Veit, of Greenwood avenue, will be hostess today to her young students of day proferte at a party at her home. Miss Myronne Gallagher, active member of the Tuesday Musicales, of Detroit, will be an honor guest.

A recital will be given by the pupils. Those taking part include: Alice and Charles Savage, Virginia Nicholson, Ruth Roberts, Dorothy and Vera Ward, Lou Churchill, Geraldine Morris, Lorraine Elliott, Joan Billings, Arlyle and Doris Myers, and Virginia and Nora Jones.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Reynolds (Josephine Shattuck), of Lincoln avenue, announce the birth of a son, May 12.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Stringer (Grace Dohany), of east Long Lake road, announce the birth of a daughter, Ann Marie, on June 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shell, of south Woodward avenue, announce the birth of twin daughters, Beverly Jean, and Barbara Ann, on June 15.

Basy Bread FOR REDUCING

F. M. McCarty, fireman at Mt. Clemens High School, says, "Some time ago I was forced to give up my position on the Grand Trunk R. R. on account of my excessive weight. Nothing that I tried (and I tried about everything) would help. I came across BASY BREAD. After eating eight loaves, I had a REDUCED from 270 to 235 pounds and want to say that my physical condition is better than it has been for years. I will always praise BASY BREAD, a wonderful aid to those who want to REDUCE."

ROTARY OFFICERS IN

Installation of officers featured the final meeting last Friday of the Rotary club at the home of Mrs. Tuna Minor, of Pine Lake. It was previously planned to hold a picnic meeting at the River Rouge park on west Maple avenue, but stormy weather forced the group indoors.

Mrs. Warren P. Gibson, who took her office, as president of the club, reported on the recent Rotary convention which she attended in Dallas, Tex., with her husband, president elect of the Rotary club.

Other officers are filled as follows: Mrs. H. A. Manley, first vice-president; Mrs. Thomas Neal, second vice-president; Mrs. Ralph Corryell, secretary; Mrs. George R. Averill, treasurer; Mrs. Ross Riddell, chairman honor committee; and Mrs. Frank Mulholland, chairman courtesy committee.

COUPLE TO WED WITH GARDEN BACKGROUND

A charming ceremony in the garden of her parent's home at two thirty o'clock Saturday afternoon will unite in marriage Miss Maxine Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Taylor, of Southfield avenue, and Ben D. Thirly, of Traver City.

The nuptial service will be read by Rev. William McKnight of Grosse Pointe, formerly of Birmingham.

Miss Virginia Taylor, a sister of the bride, will act as maid of honor, while James Thirly, a cousin of the groom, will be the best man.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Thirly will leave on a fortnight's visit to northern Michigan. They plan to live in Travers City.

VILLAGERS LEAVE ON EUROPEAN TOUR

An interesting group of villagers who will leave soon for foreign travel includes Mrs. Charles K. Latham, of Southfield road, her daughters, the Misses Mary and Helen Latham, her son, Charles K. Jr., and Frederick Whitlesey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew B. Whitlesey.

They sail Sunday from New York City for Glasgow. They plan to visit the British Isles, later going to the continent. Charles Latham and Frederick Whitlesey will return in the fall, while the others will remain for a year in Paris. At present Mrs. Latham is in Boston attending the graduation of her daughter, Mary, from Radcliffe College.

BAKE SALE

The Pythian Sisters will hold a bake sale at 10 a. m. Saturday at Birmingham. The first prize, while Richard Phillips was declared second in the memory work.

Among those who took part in the recital were: Roy Homberger, Betty Linton, Jim Schooley, Freda Schultz, Katherine Lawson, Doris Cox, Mrs. Rosa Lee Baldwin, Dean Beier, Bettie Russell, Mrs. Gladys Heister, Betty Shuler, Frederick Rollins, Mrs. Julia Lantz, Richard Phillips, Miss Byrdie M.
