Rescued from the jaws of a whizzing train—saved from the icy waters of the Hudson river—winning through countless adventures with desperate villains to a dream of happiness—that is the history of the struggling hero and heroine of the great spectacular romantic melodrama, "After Dark," that opens its third exciting week at the Detroit Civic Theatre on Monday, "Heroine and hero are played by Miriam Sears and George Blackwood, with Marie Adels and Craig Ward as their noble-hearted friends, and Walter Sherwin in the famous role of Old Tom, created in this country by William A. Brady, by whom permission for the revival is being made in Detroit at the same time as it is playing to crowded houses in Hoboken, on the "Seacoast of Bohemia."

LAFAYETTE "An American Tragedy" will enter its fourth and final week at the Shubert-Lafayette Theatre Sunday night, June 23rd. This play represents the prominent dramatist, Theodore Dreiser, at his best.

"Broadway Nights" is an imposing one and is headed by Dr. Rockwell and Odette Myrtle, while the other principal performers on the big roster include Marie George, Madeline Rita Owen, Laura Lee, Joe Phillips, Sam Raynor, Margaret Mark, George Dobbs, Madeline Stockwell, Archie Foulk, Sheila

DETROIT On Sunday evening, June 23rd, the Shubert-Detroit Opera House will be the scene of a premiere. The Messrs. Shubert's new "rapid transit musical comedy," "Broadway Nights," will have its first presentation on any stage, and advance reports herald it as "pre-tentive of Bohemia."

RUM SMUGGLING CRAFT CAUGHT ON BRINK OF NIAGARA

A 16-foot motorboat, laden with what is believed to be sacks of Canadian law, has been caught fast on a rock in the Niagara river rapids a short distance from the brink of the American falls. It is not known whether the occupants of the craft were swept over the falls or managed to effect a miraculous escape. Officials state it would be too hazardous a task to attempt to retrieve the boat.

Barrett, Nimura, Oscar and Joe Martin, King, King and King, Hancock, Goodhart and O'Brien, Dolores, Eddie and Douglas and a host of others, at the Chester Hale Girls and the Allan K. Foster dancers, are also in the company.

MANY NEW BOOKS ADDED TO LIBRARY

The past two months has seen the addition of a number of outstanding books to the shelves of the Baldwin Public Library. Among those recommended by Mrs. Nancy B. Thomas, librarian, are: "The Exquisite Tragedy," "The God Estate of Poetry," "Unravelling the Book of Job," "The Eighth," "A Personal History," "Lippman, Walter A. Preface to Morals," "The Heart of Happiness," "Believing in Eden, Norman," "The Six Mrs. Greens," "Williams, Ben Ames," "The Death on Scourges," "Sabatini," "The Romantic Prince," and "Cole, Hazel, 'Maid's Will Be Wives'."

ASSISTANT LIBRARIAN STUDY AT ANN ARBOR

Miss Gertrude Melody, children's librarian at the Baldwin Public Library, leaves Saturday for Ann Arbor where she will attend the summer session. During her two months' leave of absence her position will be filled by Miss Henrietta Lamet, a student at Hope College, who has returned to the village for the summer.
