WEDDING IS PERFORMED

Maxine Taylor Becomes Bride Of Ben Thrilby In Village

Miss Maxine Taylor and Ben Thrilby, of Traverse City, spoke their marriage vows at a lovely ceremony at two thirty o'clock Saturday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Taylor, of Southfield avenue. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood Thrilby, of Detroit. Rev. William McWhorter, of Grosse Pointe, former Birmingham pastor, read the nuptial service.

The ceremony was performed beneath a colonnade, beautifully transformed into an arch of mock orange blossom, with white roses and peonies adorned the rooms. For the occasion the bride chose a beige ensemble, fashioned with a bodice of pearl embroidery, lace collar and a full chiffon skirt. The long coat was of a matching chiffon as was the bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Virginia Taylor, a sister of the bride and her only attendant, wore a flowered chiffon dress of pastel shades. Her hat was of white horsehair and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

A cousin of the bridegroom, James Thrilby, attended him as best man.

The bride's mother was gowned in salmon georgette, while Mrs. Thrilby, chose a pink figured chiton model. A reception was held following the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Thrilby were departed on a motor trip through northern Michigan. Upon their return they will live in the latter Apartments, Traverse City.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Thrilby and Dr. and Mrs. Walter Thrilby, of Traverse City were among the out-of-town guests at the wedding.

LOUNGING ROBE OF VELVET RAYON

Leila Hyams wears this Rayon transparent velvet robe showing a printed pattern. The sleeveless jumper of silk matches the jacket lining and forms the collar. Comfort is in the belt trousers and sleeves, while a feminine note is added by the pearl tie. (Hierser)

WEDDING PLAN COMPLETED

Rev. Aulenbach To Perform Ceremonies At Bride's Home

Miss Katherine Ferguson, daughter of Mrs. George H. Ferguson, of Puritan road, charming young bride-elect whose marriage to Horace E. Shaw, of the Hills, will be an event of July 10, has made known her wedding plans.
