

COMER WINS BALL GAME

Defeat Village Nine In Slugfest Here

A home run in the fourth of innings cinched Sunday's ball game for Rayls, of Detroit, in the game with the Birmingham Merchants at Springdale Park. The Merchants, who replaced Truenos, who also failed to stem the tide of the visitors' hits, and in the seventh inning gave up the win to Schultz, who finished the game with a creditable showing.

Weak fielding in the early innings was a big factor in the defeat.

The Rayls seemed a clean left hand player and played a good game of ball to treat the Merchants to the short end of a 10-1 score.

Springdale Park was the scene of a one-sided contest on Saturday afternoon when the Judson-Bradway nine defeated the Labor Federation of Royal Oak team 18 to 3. The Judson-Bradway outfit is a ball team that shows signs of developing into a real first class as the season advances.

Gay W. Jensen, of Madison avenue, member Birmingham Board of Education. "I was mighty proud of the Baldwin high school band at Port Huron, during the Exchange club convention last Monday. Those boys, under the able direction of A. W. Bennett, director, have become a fine musical body; another year or two and I feel that Birmingham will have as fine a boys' band as there is in Michigan."

TWILIGHT TOPICS

In the American league game of last Friday night, the Firemen again displayed their superiority over the Municipal to the tune of 15 to 7. A clean, fast game, errorless, the kind that fans enjoy.

Follows the league standings:
Americans W L Pct.
Midgets 2 0 1.000
Fitch 1 0 1.000
South End 2 1 .666
Lions 1 1 .500
Eccentric 1 2 .333
DeMolay 0 3 .000

Monday night
Municipals 11—Post Office 6
South End 14—DeMolay 3
Tuesday night
Firemen 8—Baptists 3
Midgets 23—Eccentric 5

Only four games will be played next week.
July 1—Exchange vs. Baptist
July 2—Fitch vs. Eccentric
July 3—Gyrophites vs. Municipal
July 4—Lions vs. DeMolay

Early season indications are that the Midgets of the National Exchange are headed for the top place in the league this season. On Friday night they hung up the only shut-out game of the season, and in twilight baseball, that is something to "crow about."

DeMolay got the zero end of a 9-0 score.

The Midgets added another to their string of victories by defeating The Eccentric by an overwhelming score on Tuesday night.

Attendance Improving
Parking space is at a premium at the league games on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings at Barnum Field. Fans are turning out in increasing numbers to see this lively sport between friendly village teams. This past season offers a pleasant place to spend the early evenings and the interest shown is appreciated by the players and officials.

Boys have been playing baseball each morning and afternoon at Barnum Field. They will be singles and doubles in each sport. Entries are to close July 8.

Like the "penny dreadful" of 1860, "After Dark" is a highly moral play. Its villain receives his just deserts, the hero and heroine are rewarded, and good triumphs over evil in the proper manner. Music is one of the chief features of the performance; the old-time entrance music is used for the character.

Swimming seems to be the most popular sport at present. About 25 boys are enjoying the cool waters and lovely beach of Walnut Lake every Tuesday and Wednesday.

Anyone interested in archery kind get in touch with the recorder soon, as there is an archery tournament planned.

Get out your horseshoes and tennis rackets, for entries are now open for the tournament. There will be singles and doubles in each sport. Entries are to close July 8.

Sound Advice For Birmingham Property Owners

Make a will. Have a competent lawyer draw it. But first—talk over your plans with those who have wide experience in estate and trust work. Their knowledge may save you money and trouble. And then name a trust company like the Highland Park as your executor and trustee.

The Highland Park Trust Company has the double advantage of wide experience with estates and trusts, and acquaintance with Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills people, in addition to well-known financial responsibility and ample organization.

Settling estates and managing property in trust is our specialized business.

BIRMINGHAM Today and Friday
With a laugh for trouble and a curse for a weakling George Bancroft drives his way through his role in "The Wolf of Wall Street," his new starring picture which offers him his first "dressed up" opportunity since he became a star. He plays a bullying, unscrupulous, but shrewd, broker of Wall Street, a man without fear or conscience, driving over every obstacle and even welcoming ruin when it proves the only way he can defeat his enemy. The picture is all-talking.

Sunday and Monday
Debate regarding the possibility of a perfect alibi for a murderer was responsible for the writing of "The Canary Murder Case." The story of the origin of the plot of the novel was revealed by S. S. Van Dine, mysterious author of the unusual tale.

"I sought to evolve a perfect alibi for a man accused of murder," said Van Dine. "In other words, how could a man commit a murder and then prove that he couldn't possibly have done it?"

"Having at last come across a 'perfect' alibi, I set to work to break it. All this took about three months. I spent the next six months in writing the story. And that is 'The Canary Murder Case,' an all-talking picture, with William Powell and Louise Brooks.

The magnetism Fannie Brice has spread so wonderfully over all her work on the stage was felt by her co-workers in Hollywood. As is known, the comedienne was lately in picture land immersed in the filming of "My Man." From the first assembly of the players Miss Brice made her personality felt to a degree that caused those surrounding her to pay her the deference the actor is always ready to grant to the true artist.

Great care was exercised in the filming of the exciting sequences of this picture, in which Miss Brice does a number of her most popular sketches, including "My Man," after which the picture is named.

CIVIC
"After Dark," or "Neither Maid, Wife Nor Widow," the thrilling old melodrama in Detroit which has taken all Detroit by storm, opens its 4th week at the Detroit Civic Theatre Monday night.

"After Dark" revives the old villain of former days, with his black mustache and dark deeds, the suffering heroine and noble young hero, the brave and gallant rescue scenes from river and railroad. Miriam Sears and George Blackwood enact heroine and hero, with Craig Ward and Marie Adels as the noble friend and his fiancée, and Walter Shepley as the villain. Old Tom, with Harold Heaton as the villain.
