ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

Lucille Campbell To Become Bride Of East Lansing Man

Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell, of 318 Purdy street, announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Lucille Catherine Campbell, to Verne Allen Stockman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stockman of East Lansing. The wedding will take place in June.

Both Miss Campbell and Mr. Stockman are employed as teachers in Grand Lodge and will make their home there after the marriage.

The bride-elect is a popular member of Birmingham's younger set, graduating from the Baldwin High School eight years ago. She is also a graduate of the Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti where she was a member of the Sigma Sigma Sorority.

She attended the Detroit Conservatory of Music and has taken a prominent part in village musical circles.

Mr. Stockman is a graduate of Michigan State College at East Lansing.

RING REHEARSAL IS PLANNED

A rehearsal for the musical ride to be held on the day of the formal opening of the new ring at the Bloomfield Open Hunt club will be held at 7:30 p. m. tomorrow evening.

Although no date has been set for the dedication of the ring, it is probable that it will take place the last week in April. A horse show will be held at that time.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S GROUP OF CHURCH TO DANCE

The young people of Holy Name Chapel are making plans for a dancing party to be held April 12 in the Church Hall, following a meeting last Sunday when tentative plans were discussed. Dr. Alfred A. Barker was named chairman of the committee in charge of preparations.

A meeting was held Wednesday night at the home of George Wright, 217 North Woodward avenue at which further plans for the new organization were made.

A social time is planned to follow the business session. Harold Kline will give several musical numbers, it has been announced. Tea will be served with Mrs. Raymond Peck in charge.

WOMAN'S RISE IN MANUFACTURING IS NARRATED

From the sole operator of a tiny beauty shop to the manufacture of her own beauty products is the history of Mrs. James A. Eaton, of Brown street.

For nine years Mrs. Eaton has practiced beauty culture in Birmingham, known to her clientele as "Francie."

Always she has been interested in beauty culture. When but 18 years old she went to Paris to study under her grandmother, Mrs. Kline, of a beauty salon there. Since that time she has studied under Dr. F. G. White, a Chicago dermatologist.

Mrs. Eaton has used these same recipes that she learned years ago in Paris in the manufacture of her products, she reports.

Principal Melvin Hart was the speaker at a meeting of the faculty of Berkley Schools Monday afternoon. His subject was "The supervision of Class room Teaching."
